Wef Globalcompetitivenessreport 2013 14:

Chronicles of the Egyptian Revolution and its Aftermath: 2011–2016 M. Cherif Bassiouni, 2017 This book analyses Egypt's 2011 Revolution highlighting the struggle for freedom justice and human dignity in the face of economic and social problems and an on going military regime

Authoritarian Modernization in Russia Vladimir Gel'man, 2016-08-12 Post Communist Russia is an instance of the phenomenon of authoritarian modernization project which is perceived as a set of policies intended to achieve a high level of economic development while political freedoms remain beyond the current modernization agenda or are postponed to a distant future Why did Russia unlike many countries of post Communist Europe pursue authoritarian modernization after the Soviet collapse What is the ideational agenda behind this project and why does it dominate Russia's post Communist political landscape What are the mechanisms of political governance which maintain this project and how have they adopted and absorbed various democratic institutions and practices Why has this project brought such diverse results in various policy arenas and why have the consequences of certain policies become so controversial Why despite so many controversies shortcomings and flaws has this project remained attractive in the eyes of a large proportion of the Russian elite and ordinary citizens This volume intended to place some of these questions on the research agenda and propose several answers encouraging further discussions about the logic and mechanisms of the authoritarian modernization project in post Communist Russia and its effects on Russia's politics economy and society

OECD Food and Agricultural Reviews Innovation, Agricultural Productivity and Sustainability in Canada OECD, 2015-08-03 The Canadian food and agriculture sector is for the most part competitive and export oriented although challenges and opportunities vary significantly between regions primary agriculture benefits from an abundance of natural resources and faces limited environmental constraints

Hong Kong in the Shadow of China Richard C. Bush, 2016-10-11 A close up look at the struggle for democracy in Hong Kong Hong Kong in the Shadow of China is a reflection on the recent political turmoil in Hong Kong during which the Chinese government insisted on gradual movement toward electoral democracy and hundreds of thousands of protesters occupied major thoroughfares to push for full democracy Fueling this struggle is deep public resentment over growing inequality and how the political system established by China and dominated by the local business community reinforces the divide between those who have profited immensely and those who struggle for such basics as housing Richard Bush director of the Brookings Institution's Center on East Asia Policy Studies takes us inside the demonstrations and the demands of the demonstrators and then pulls back to critically explore what Hong Kong and China must do to ensure both economic competitiveness and good governance and the implications of Hong Kong developments for United States policy

Infrastructure Investment in Indonesia: A Focus on Ports Colin Duffield, Felix Kin Peng Hui, Sally Wilson, 2019-11-10 Infrastructure Investment in Indonesia A Focus on Ports presents an important and original collation of current material investigating the efficient facilitation of major infrastructure projects in Indonesia and Australia with an emphasis on infrastructure investment and a focus on port planning and development This interdisciplinary collection spanning the disciplines of engineering law and planning draws helpfully on a range of practical and theoretical perspectives It is the collaborative effort of leading experts in the fields of infrastructure project initiation and financing and is based on international research conducted by the University of Melbourne Universitas Indonesia and Universitas Gadjah Mada The volume opens with a macroscopic perspective outlining the broader economic situations confronting Indonesia and Australia before adopting a more microscopic perspective to closely examine the issues surrounding major infrastructure investment in both countries Detailed case studies are provided key challenges are identified and evidence based solutions are offered These solutions respond to such topical issues as how to overcome delays in infrastructure project initiation how to enhance project decision making for the selection and evaluation of projects how to improve overall efficiency in the arrangement of project finance and governance and how to increase the return provided by investment in infrastructure Special focus is given to proposed improvements to the port cities of Indonesia in the areas of major infrastructure project governance policies engagement operation and processes By rigorously investigating the economic transport finance and policy aspects of infrastructure investment this book will be a valuable resource for policy makers and government officials in Indonesia and Australia infrastructure investment organisations and companies involved in exporting services between Indonesia and Australia This book will also be of interest to researchers and students of infrastructure planning and financing setting a solid foundation for subsequent investigations of financing options for large scale infrastructure developments
