Translating Montreal Episodes In The Life Of A Divided City:

Translating Montreal Sherry Simon, 2006-10-10 The divided Montreal of the 1960s is very different from today's cosmopolitan hybrid city. Taking the perspective of a walker moving through a fluid landscape of neighbourhoods and eras, Sherry Simon experiences Montreal as a voyage across languages. Sketching out literary passages from the then of the colonial city to the now of the cosmopolitan Montreal, she traces a history of crossings and intersections around the familiar sites and symbols of the city: the mythical boulevard Saint Laurent, Mile End, the Jacques Cartier Bridge, Mont Royal. The Routledge Handbook of Translation and the City Tong King Lee, 2021-06-27 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and the City is the first multifaceted and cross-disciplinary overview of how cities can be read through the lens of translation and how translation studies can be enriched by an understanding of the complex dynamics of the city. Divided into four sections, the chapters are authored by leading scholars in translation studies, sociolinguistics, and literary and cultural criticism. They cover contexts from Brussels to Singapore and Melbourne to Cairo and topics from translation as resistance to translanguaging and urban design. This volume explores the role of translation at critical junctures of a city's historical transformation as well as in the mundane intercultural moments of urban life and uncovers the trope of the translational city in writing. This Handbook is critical reading for researchers, scholars, and advanced students in translation studies, linguistics, and urban studies. Griffintown Matthew Barlow, 2017-06-28 This vibrant biography of Griffintown, an inner-city Montreal neighbourhood, brings to life the history of Irish identity in the legendary enclave. As Irish immigration dwindled by the late nineteenth century, Irish culture in the city became diasporic, reflecting an imagined homeland. Focusing on the power of memory to shape community, Matthew Barlow finds that despite sociopolitical pressures and a declining population, the spirit of this ethnic quarter was nurtured by the men and women who grew up there. Today, as Griffintown attracts renewed interest from developers, this textured analysis reveals how public memory defines our urban centres. The Translation Studies Reader Lawrence Venuti, 2012 A definitive survey of the most important developments in translation theory and research with an emphasis on the twentieth century. This new edition includes pre-twentieth century readings and readings from other fields. Cities in Translation Sherry Simon, 2013-03-01 All cities are multilingual, but there are some where language relations have a special importance. These are cities where more than one historically rooted language community lays claim to the territory of the city. This book focuses on four such linguistically divided cities: Calcutta, Trieste, Barcelona, and Montreal. Though living with the ever-present threat of conflict, these cities offer the possibility of creative interaction across competing languages, and this book examines the dynamics of translation in its many forms. By focusing on a category of cities which has received little attention, this study contributes to our understanding of the kinds of language relations that sustain the diversity of urban life. Illustrated with photos and maps, Cities in Translation is both an engaging read for a wide-ranging audience and an important text in advancing theory and methodology in translation studies. Literature and the Glocal City

Ana María Fraile-Marcos,2014-07-17 The modern city is a space that can simultaneously represent the principles of its homeland alongside its own unique blend of the cultures that intermingle within its city limits This book makes an intervention in Canadian literary criticism by foregrounding both globalism which is increasingly perceived as the state of the art literary paradigm and the city These are two significant axes of contemporary culture and identity that were previously disregarded by a critical tradition built around the importance of space and place in Canadian writing Yet as relevant as the turn to the city and to globalism may be this collection s most notable contribution lies in linking the notion of glocality that is the intermeshing of local and global forces to representations of subjectivity in the material and figurative space of the Canadian city Dealing with oppositional discourses as multiculturalism postcolonialism feminism diaspora and environmentalism this book is an essential reference for any scholar with an interest in these areas Seen but Not Seen

Donald B. Smith,2020-12-11 Based on decades of extensive archival research Seen but Not Seen uncovers a great swath of previously unknown information about settler Indigenous relations in Canada Television Cities Charlotte

Brunsdon,2018-01-19 In Television Cities Charlotte Brunsdon traces television s representations of metropolitan spaces to show how they reflect the medium s history and evolution thereby challenging the prevalent assumptions about television as quintessentially suburban Brunsdon shows how the BBC s presentation of 1960s Paris in the detective series Maigret signals British culture s engagement with twentieth century modernity and continental Europe while various portrayals of London ranging from Dickens adaptations to the 1950s nostalgia of Call the Midwife demonstrate Britain s complicated transition from Victorian metropole to postcolonial social democracy Finally an analysis of The Wire s acclaimed examination of Baltimore marks the profound shifts in the ways television is now made and consumed Illuminating the myriad factors that make television cities Brunsdon complicates our understanding of how television shapes perceptions of urban spaces both familiar and unknown Contested Spaces, Counter-narratives, and Culture from Below in Canada and Québec

Roxanne Rimstead,Domenic A. Beneventi,2019-03-14 Contested Spaces Counter narratives and Culture from Below in Canada and Québec explores strategies for reading space and conflict in Canadian and Québecois literature and cultural performances positing questions such as how do these texts and performances produce and contest spatial practices What are the roles of the nation city community and individual subject in reproducing space particularly in times of global hegemony and neocolonialism And in what ways do marginalized individuals and communities represent contest or appropriate spaces through counter narratives and expressions of culture from below Focusing on discord rather than harmony and consensus this collection disturbs the idealized space of Canadian multicultural pluralism to carry literary analysis and cultural studies into spaces often undetected and unforeseen including flophouses and slums shantytowns and urban alleyways underground spaces and peep shows and inner city urban parks as they are experienced by minorities and other marginalized groups These essays are the products of sustained high level collaboration across French and English academic communities in Canada to facilitate theoretical exchange on the topic of space and contestation uncover geographies of exclusion and generate new spaces of hope in the spirit of pioneering works by Henri Lefebvre Michel Foucault Michel de Certeau Doreen Massey David Harvey and other prominent theorists of space Mindscales of Montreal Ceri Morgan, 2012-10-15 This innovative study of the Montreal novel in French looks at how imaginary and material landscapes come together to produce a city of neighbourhoods
