THE SCRAMBLE FOR AFRICA AND THE BUILD UP TO A THIRD WORLD WAR: CHANGING POWER PATTERNS AT THE GLOBAL LEVEL AND LESSONS FOR AFRICA

Abstract

The aim of this journal was to analyze the current global war events and how they are set to change power patterns at the global level and its impact and lessons for Africa. The assumption of this study was that these reckless wars in the 21st century are set to reshape the global world order and lead to either African renaissance or recolonisation. The objectives of the study were, to account for the global hostilities, to project possible outcomes, and to come up with a solution to the identified challenges. The study relied on both primary and secondary data sets. The findings of the study were that, that the US Dollar will cease to be a global currency and that there is going to be a new alternative international payment system, the UNSC will die and the five permanent member states principle dies vindicating Mugabeism, that Russia will rely on nuclear threats for its survival, the trade war between China and USA has put China at the center of the USA's countervailing strategies, that part of the USA's countervailing strategy is targeting the BRICS (Brazil, Russia, India, China, and South Africa), that the USA and Russia despite their own differences are uncomfortable with the sudden surge of China as this threatens the historical racial hierarchy that has been dominated by whites, that China has been burdened with externally orchestrated convulsions in Hong Kong, arms sales to Taiwan, Tibet cessation led Daila Lama, alleged human rights against the minority Muslims in North-West China, and bellicose statements targeting China's intentions within its region, and that Afrophobia marks the end of regional African bodies especially SADC and revolutionary parties. The poor performance of the South African economy (29 percent unemployment rate) is a dangling sword in the hands of the white business sector. The study recommends that South Africa must kill the tribe as prescribed by Samora Machael who stated that for a nation-state to live the tribe must die, the USA must avoid the Hitler approach of creating so many wars, Africa must not jump to award resources to the foreigners, Africa must ringfence its resources from external exploitation, there will be more coups in Africa as the level of disgruntlement has risen alarmingly and Africa must not just 'hope' as a strategy for survival.

Introduction

Sherman Kent the godfather of strategic intelligence states that powerful countries use strategic intelligence to shape and control the future. The countries are investing in technology, intelligence acquisition, and analysis to improve reliability and the credibility of the intelligence gathered. This has seen countries invest in digital intelligence, artificial intelligence, and geo-information surveys to predict and control future events. The 5th generation of technology has seen developed countries moving towards digital security and technology shaping global events. Unfortunately, in Africa,

War and the Changing Global System William Kinkade Domke, 1988-01-01 A New Europe in the Changing Global System Richard A. Falk, Tamás Szentes, 1997 In this new book a group of distinguished scholars from a range of disciplines and geographical backgrounds reflect on the centrality of the recent European experience to the global community today They look at the new Europe that is emerging in the wake of the dramatic geopolitical changes that occurred on the continent at the end of the 1980s The contributors seek to open a variety of perspectives including those of culture and history on today's rapidly changing European scene They examine in detail the process of transition and internal realities confronting post communist governments in Eastern and Central Europe Their provocative essays also look at the role of Europe in the new global economy the new regional alignments that are emerging and other key questions about the continent in the emerging world order In addition to the editors the contributors are Samir Amin Third World Forum Dakar Senegal Carlos Blanco Minister for the Reform of the State of Venezuela Gianni Bonvicini Istituto Affari Internazionali Rome Albert Bressand PROMETHEE Transnational Networks Paris Charles Cooper United Nations University Institute for New Technologies in Maastricht Netherlands Robert Cox York University Toronto Arpad Goncz president of the Hungarian Republic Bjorn Hettne University of Gothenburg Sweden Lal Jayawardena National Development Council Domokos Kosary Hungarian Academy of Sciences Vladislav Kotchetkov UNESCO Tibor Palankai Budapest University of Economics George Schopflin University of London and Mihaly Simai Hungarian Academy of Sciences Budapest War in a Changing World Zeev Maoz, Azar Gat, 2001 Essays tracing the changing nature of war in relation to global and regional changes

International Relations In A Changing Global System Seyom Brown, 2018-02-19 This book expands and deepens the analysis of a new approach to the study of international relations in a changing global system elaborating the essential characteristics of the anarchic structure of the world polity The Palgrave Handbook of Africa and the Changing Global Order Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2021-11-22 This handbook fills a large gap in the current knowledge about the critical role of Africa in the changing global order By connecting the past present and future in a continuum that shows the paradox of existence for over one billion people the book underlines the centrality of the African continent to global knowledge production the global economy global security and global creativity Bringing together perspectives from top Africa scholars it actively dispels myths of the continent as just a passive recipient of external influences presenting instead an image of an active global agent that astutely projects soft power Unlike previous handbooks this book offers an eclectic mix of historical contemporary and interdisciplinary approaches that allow for a more holistic view of the many aspects of Africa's relations with the world The Changing Global Order Madeleine O. Hosli, Joren Selleslaghs, 2019-11-22 This volume offers a comprehensive evaluation of the concept of global order with a particular emphasis on the role of regional organisations within global governance institutions such as the United Nations Building from a solid theoretical base it draws upon the expertise of numerous leading international scholars offering a broad array of timely and relevant case studies. These all take into consideration the historical setting before analysing the contemporary situation and offering suggestions for potential realignments and readjustments that may be witnessed in the future. The volume adopts an interdisciplinary approach when addressing some of the most pressing issues of global governance which our global community must tackle. This presents the readers an opportunity to understand related topics such as political economy, international law, institutions of global governance in conjunction with the academic field of International Relations (IR). It further helps students and interested readers understand the theoretical and practical foundations to the changing nature of global affairs. Small

States and the Changing Global Order Anne-Marie Brady, 2019-07-22. This book provides a critical examination of the foreign policy choices of one typical small state, New Zealand, as it faces the changing global balance of power. New Zealand's foreign policy challenges are similar with those faced by many other small states in the world today and are ideally suited to help inform theoretical debates on the role of small states in the changing international system. The book analyses how a small state such as New Zealand is adjusting to the changing geopolitical and economic environment. The book includes perspectives from some of New Zealand's leading as well as emerging commentators on New Zealand foreign policy. The Global Strategic Assessment 2009: America's Security Role in a Changing World Patrick M. Cronin, 2009. Provides an overview of eight broad trends shaping the international security environment: a global analysis of the world's seven regions to consider important developments in their distinctive neighborhoods and an examination of prospective U.S. contributions, military capabilities and force structure, national security organization, alliances and partnerships, and strategies.

Chinese Perspectives on Global Governance and China, 2021-10-25. The acceleration of globalization and the rise of China are among the most important events in the 21st century. Globalization is a double-edged sword for human society. There is a strong belief among the international community that global governance is the most effective solution to most of our global problems. In this volume, Chinese scholars contribute to the study of global governance by exploring ways to effectively face the tough challenges brought by globalization such as economic prosperity, environmental issues, and global security.

China in International Society Since 1949 Y. Zhang, 1998-10-05. This book is a reinterpretation of China's international relations since 1949. Employing the notion and theory of international society, it offers a systematic examination of China's unique relationship with the society of states from its alienation in the 1950s and the 1960s to its political socialisation and economic integration in the 1980s and the 1990s. It explores how such a unique relationship has shaped and is likely to shape Chinese foreign policy. This book provides an entirely new perspective for our understanding of forces influencing Chinese
