War Boy Teaching Resources

Andrew Wilson

War Boy Teaching Resources:

Moving Beyond Personal Loss to Societal Grieving Michelle M. Falter, Steven T. Bickmore, 2018-11-23 Moving Beyond Personal Loss to Societal Grieving considers how secondary English language arts teachers and teacher educators can sensitively and thoughtfully teach pieces of literature in their classrooms in which large scale deaths are a significant if not central aspect of the texts As mass shootings and violence against black and brown bodies increase and issues such as AIDS war and genocide remain important to discuss as part of a shared critical and social consciousness this book provides resources for educators to directly tackle and discuss these topics through the texts they read in their ELA classrooms Whether it is canonical or contemporary literature middle grades or young adult literature fiction nonfiction or graphic novels literature provides a vehicle to have these difficult but needed conversations about not only the personal but social effects of death and grief in our society Each chapter in this book focuses on 1 2 texts and provides practical activities that ask students to engage with death dying and loss through writing assignments projects activities and discussion prompts in order to build empathy understanding and develop critically minded and engaged students Moving Beyond Personal Loss to Societal Grieving will be of interest to English language arts teachers teacher educators librarians and scholars who wish to explore with their students the complex emotions that revolve around discussing deaths that occur in literature
