original saints plants and animals live their calling without trying to be something they're not and inspire you to do the same paired with the practice of gratitude the earth as original icon nature can serve as a window to the holy in the same way that icons do paired with the practice of lament As you explore what these connections between the earth and faith mean for how to see God in the world around you you can also look at saints and mystics who experienced nature and the flow of the divine in similar ways find there a path toward hope and spiritual maturity Paintner has experienced multiple journeys through grief that have brought her face to face with what she calls the midwinter God the seeming absence of the God of life in dark and fallow seasons of loss She has learned to confront her own terror in that darkness and to approach it with curiosity to see what it has to teach her This endeavor has illuminated a path for her to embrace a life of profound depth one that honors both the trials of suffering and the richness of joy With her characteristic integrative and creative practices Paintner abbess of the online Abbey of the Arts guides her readers to view darkness as a place where seeds of holiness begin to germinate Each chapter of this book unfolds as an invitation to grow in understanding of holy darkness and also meditate reflect and create with these elements Paintner s reflections on various themes of loss and acceptance Insights on a scripture passage written by Paintner s husband John A guided meditation to bring the teachings into your heart Prompts for an expressive arts practice to process these insights through creativity Reflection questions to integrate what you have experienced Writing samples from people who have worked through this material in an online retreat Autumn and winter are vital to the health of nature and to our own bodies It is a time of releasing and letting go a season that invites us to slow down to welcome the growing darkness and to grow stiller and quieter Darkness can be an uncomfortable and uneasy place but it is also a place of profound incubation and gestation a source of tremendous and hard wrought wisdom With Paintner as our guide we can encounter this midwinter God with vulnerable courage that leads us to hope filled wholeness Nature Spirituality Mark G.
