Music to Eat Cake By Lev Parikian, 2020-11-12 Today's reader has choices: books about love, about life, about death and everything in between. The variety is overwhelming, bewildering. But what if the reader could play a part in producing something different, something about everything about nothing about everything and nothing at the same time? What if the reader could tell the writer what to write about? Lev Parikian asked his readers those very questions, gathered their responses and then set out to write that book. Music to Eat Cake By is the result: a collection of essays exploring everything from the art of the sandwich and space travel to how not to cure hiccups and, of course, his beloved birdsong. Lev considers each subject with his signature wit and warmth, inviting the reader to wonder what might we ask him to write about next.

We Don't Dig Dinosaurs! Sue T. Carter, 2014-06-20 There is a wide held misconception that archaeologists dig up dinosaurs; we don't, we leave that to the palaeontologists. Archaeology is the study of the human past and there is an approximate gap of 64 million years between the extinction of the dinosaurs and human evolution. This book holds insights into what archaeologists from around the world really do in their work life and why they chose archaeology as a career. Stories ranging from animals, the environment, sacrifice, human remains, community involvement and even fantasy related archaeology. This book is an insight into the many aspects of life in the interesting and diverse career of archaeology. Whether you are a student looking at studying archaeology, an armchair critic, someone who finds the subject interesting or think that archaeology involves just three days of digging, this book will open up a whole new world of what is involved in the eclectic career of an archaeologist.

Over the Beach Zalin Grant, 2013-08-12 The Right Stuff without the hype. Yeager without the ego. Washington Post Book World: While the jet jockey competitiveness, the undercurrent of fear, the victories and foul ups of jet sweeps have been described many times, few such chronicles have done it so grippingly and with such a ring of accuracy. Mr Grant explores the emotions felt not only by the men in battle but by the wives and others left behind and the questions the war raised in their minds. To put in larger context the war's impact on individual participants the author periodically reviews the high level struggles over how to fight the air war What is most impressive is to find an analysis so clearly stated so seemingly on track in locating the weak spots in the policies of various political and military officials Written in a straightforward yet stylish prose Over the Beach carries tremendous conviction Richard Witkin New York Times Book Review Conversations with the Enemy Winston Groom, Duncan Spencer, 1983 Conversations With the Enemy is the well documented saga of the 14 year captivity of U S Marine PFC Robert Garwood in Vietnam In September of 1965 while serving in Da Nang as a staff driver Garwood was tasked to pick up a military member some distance from his base when he was accosted by the Viet Cong and placed into the enemy prison camp system Whatever the Weather Derek Brockway, 2007 Popular weatherman Derek Brockway shares his fascination with the weather especially the dramatic extremes floods storms and drought The Weather-man's Secret John Kirkpatrick, 1938 *California.
