Change and Intersectional Activism Sharon Doetsch-Kidder, 2012-06-04 Reading texts in relation to feminist queer and race theory and Buddhist philosophy this book argues that an understanding of spirit is critical to explaining the power that social movements have to change hearts minds and social structures Autumn Gospel Kathleen Fischer, Kathleen R. Fischer, 1995 With her characteristic honesty gentleness and insight Kathleen Fischer explores the spiritual dimensions of women s middle and later years as she weaves together stories experiences and research from a variety of traditions and cultures She begins with a discussion of how societal images of older women constrict their sense of worth and their possibilities The author then suggests ways in which older women can embrace new visions of themselves She proceeds to explore the place of transitions the inner life contemplation the body mourning remembering caregiving and intergenerational connections as each relates to women s spirituality in later life At each chapter s end Dr Fischer offers rituals prayers and meditations that mark the passages of the second half of life Love and Loss A Journey through

Fear to Peace - Volume Five Betty Hibod, 2025-01-08 What if the teachings of scripture weren t just stories or symbols but lived realities Loss Love and A Journey through Fear to Peace offers a rare window into that experience Unlike traditional biographies or historical accounts this spiritual memoir invites readers deep into the invisible world of awakening Betty Hibod s journal based narrative is intensely personal documenting the lived embodiment of mystical principles across time grief and divine revelation From devastating loss to divine union from emotional disintegration to spiritual clarity Betty records her journey not as metaphor but as transformation made flesh More than a spiritual memoir this book is a detailed sensual and unfiltered chronicle of mystical awakening It explores tantric love divine feminine spirituality and non dualism through a lens that is both deeply human and profoundly sacred Rather than offering abstract theories it shows how the myths of sacred texts take shape in daily life It answers the questions rarely spoken aloud What does enlightenment feel like in real time How does one survive and evolve through spiritual paradox grief and loss and the collapse of personal identity Infused with mystical awakening philosophical reflection and raw emotional truth this is not a book about religion It is a book of lived revelation For readers seeking a deeper understanding of consciousness sacred sexuality or the journey of awakening

this memoir is a path inward Step beyond the stories Walk into the soul Buy now and begin the journey Closing the Gap Allerd Stikker,2002 Today s patriarchal societies have their roots in antiquity a time when matrilineal societies gradually gave way to ancient civilizations in which men were granted more and more importance and power and women were made not only subordinate but also gradually separated from realms of the male In Closing the Gap Allerd Stikker argues that the male female duality we still perceive has resulted in a loss of coherence and integrity for all people and that only the unity and interdependence of the sexes can preserve a sustainable human society on our planet Journeys East Harry Oldmeadow,2004-04-28 This is the first book to treat the impact of religious philosophical and psychological traditions of the East on Western intellectuals artists travellers and spiritual seekers in the twentieth century Addressed to both general readers and scholars of religion it is especially valuable for its penetrating and inter religious analysis of two of the most compelling themes now facing the world the emergence of cross cultural religious understanding of the natural order and ecological crisis and the metaphysical basis for both the formal diversity and essential unity of religious traditions of both East and West The West has long romanticized the mysterious East but it has also judged its traditions as uncivilized Our notions about Eastern spirituality have been formed by a succession of travellers scientists artists intellectuals poets philosophers and missionaries as well as by Eastern travellers who have spent time in the West This book helps us to recognize the influence of Eastern ideas upon modern Western thought by tracing the history of engagements between East and West up until the present day It concludes with a section that helps us to perceive the timeless value of the many Eastern contributions to the West s current intellectual and spiritual state Rewriting God Elaine Lindsay,2021-11-22 Women are rarely if ever mentioned in commentaries upon Australian Christianity and spirituality Only exceptional women are recognized as authorities on religious matters Why is this so Does it matter Don t people from the same religious tradition share similar experiences of the divine regardless of their gender Rewriting God asks whether women have been writing about the divine and whether their insights are different from those contained in malestream accounts of Australian Christianity and spirituality An analysis of the writings of popular theologians and religious commentators over the last twenty years suggests that the most popular form of spirituality among Australian theologians is Desert Spirituality An analysis of women s autobiographical writings however suggests that the desert is irrelevant to many women s spiritual experiences This book through a close investigation of the fictions of Thea Astley Elizabeth Jolley and Barbara Hanrahan attempts to posit alternative forms of women s spirituality and to signal ways in which this spirituality is already being expressed From the evidence gathered here it becomes obvious that traditional expressions of Australian Christianity and spirituality are gender specific and that they have functioned to deny women s religious experiences and to silence their claims to equality in the sight and service of the divine It becomes obvious too that women have been developing their own forms of religious expression and that these may be expected to supplant gradually withering images of Desert Spirituality

Whether this new imagery will strengthen Australian Christianity or whether it merely marks a decline in the authority of Christianity remains a moot point Erosion of Reality by Spatialisation and Digitalisation Pieter Brabers, 2022-08 This book offers an innovative view of everyday reality It clarifies how the spatial dimension of reality as well as our personal and interpersonal perception and interaction with reality aggravates human separateness at the expense of human connectedness It shows how many urgent societal challenges are affected by an imbalance between spatial and the non spatial aspects and offers an analysis of the impoverishment of society both in spatial terms spatialisation and in informational terms digitalisation Drawing on insights from quantum physics and depth psychology it proposes an unorthodox view of the potential of humans and of reality in itself that was lost in this impoverishment I found this book hugely interesting highly original and very well written I haven't come across these ideas presented in quite this way and so the book could be considered a groundbreaking contribution Dr Stephan Harding Resident Ecologist Schumacher College Author of Animate Earth It rarely happens that we are invited by a scholarly text to look at reality in a basically different way than the one we are used to at least in a way that is seductive and compelling at the same time But this is precisely what the text of Pieter Brabers has done with me Dr John Rijsman Emeritus Professor of Social Psychology Tilburg University Catching the Thread Llewellyn Vaughan-Lee, Irina Tweedie, 1998-07-10 A pioneering work integrating the traditional wisdom of the Sufis with the insights of Jungian psychology
