Japanese Understanding of Salvation Martin Heißwolf, 2018-02-14 It is no secret that Christianity has been widely rejected in Japan with less than two percent of the population identifying as Christian. The dominant worldview in Japan is deeply animistic with beliefs such as the Japanese mana concept, the Japanese soul concept, and the concept of God/gods/kami being deeply rooted in the culture and fundamentally influencing society. Dr. Martin Heißwolf, with his years of experience in Japan, critically examines Japanese animism in light of core Christian beliefs such as the concepts of peace and salvation. Central to Japanese people's rejection of Christian truth is the diametric opposition of its supernatural message to the natural focus of Japanese animistic folk religion. Heißwolf's meticulous study is framed squarely within missiological thought and praxis so Christians serving in Japanese contexts are better able to communicate the message of the gospel by more fully understanding Japanese people/people by whom God wants to be known.

Magazines and Modern Identities Tim Satterthwaite, Andrew Thacker, 2023-09-21 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth century, ideals of technological progress and mass consumerism shaped the print cultures of countries across the globe. Magazines in Europe, the USA, Latin America, and Asia inflected a shared internationalism and technological optimism. But there were equally powerful countervailing influences of patriotic or insurgent nationalism and of traditionalism that promoted cultural differentiation. In their editorials, images, and advertisements, magazines embodied the tensions between these domestic imperatives and the forces of global modernity. Magazines and Modern Identities explores how these tensions played out in the magazine cultures of ten different countries, describing how publications drew on, resisted, and informed the ideals and visual forms of global modernism. Chapters take in the magazines of Australia, Europe, and North America, as well as China, the Soviet Union, Turkey, and Mexico. With contributions from leading international scholars, the book considers the pioneering developments in European and North American periodicals in the modernist period whilst expanding the field of enquiry to take in the vibrant magazine cultures of East Asia and Latin America. The construction of these magazines' modern ideals was a complex dialectical process in dialogue with international modernism but equally responsive to their local cultures and the beliefs and expectations of their readers. Magazines and Modern Identities captures the diversity of these ideals in periodicals that both embraced and criticised the globalised culture of the technological era.

Kulturelle Nachhaltigkeit lernen und lehren Carmen Sippl, Erwin Rauscher, 2021-12-28 Das Anthropozän ist Denkrahmen und Reflexionsbegriff für transformative Bildungsprozesse, denn es fordert dazu auf, in Hochschulen aktiv die Notwendigkeit einer zukunftsorientierten nachhaltigen Neugestaltung der Mensch-Natur-Beziehung zu thematisieren. Kreative kulturelle Perspektiven, Praktiken, Produkte spielen dabei eine zentrale Rolle. Im Zentrum der vorliegenden Beiträge steht die Frage nach der Bedeutung und den Möglichkeiten kultureller Nachhaltigkeit als Bildungskonzept für eine gesellschaftliche Transformation, deren Ziel der Schutz und die Sicherung der menschlichen und nichtmenschlichen Lebensbedingungen im Anthropozän ist. Dieser Sammelband bietet
