Welcome To Christ A Lutheran Catechetical Guide:

Welcome to Christ Augsburg Fortress (Publisher), 1997-01-01 Offers practical advice on the foundations of this ministry to the newcomer scripture study personal prayer and communal worship and ministry in daily life An annotated bibliography presents Lutheran and ecumenical resources that will help congregations carry out this baptismal ministry The Rites of Christian Initiation Maxwell E. Johnson, 2016-03-24 Originally published in 1999 The Rites of Christian Initiation was hailed for its clarity and comprehensiveness Kieran McDonnell OSB called it the best overall treatment of Christian initiation available and Paul Bradshaw predicted it would be the standard textbook on the subject for very many years to come The current edition draws on new translations of early texts on baptism as well as recent scholarship on the early traditions in the East and West It is sure to replace itself as the new standard reference on the rites of Christian initiation Maxwell E Johnson's expanded and revised text provides a more complete view of the history and interpretation of the rites in the Eastern Church including two chapters that explore the pre Nicene Eastern and Western traditions in detail Revisiting the theology of baptism this edition also provides more nuanced positions on the Eastern and Western traditions Finally recent liturgical developments in American Protestant churches particularly Lutheran as well as the ongoing development of the RCIA and confirmation practices of Catholics made it necessary to revisit the place and meaning of these rites in the church today Maxwell E Johnson PhD is professor of liturgy at the University of Notre Dame and an ordained minister of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America He has published in Worship and is the editor of and contributor to Living Water Sealing Spirit Readings on Christian Initiation Liturgical Press 1995 and the revised and expanded edition of E C Whitaker Documents of the Baptismal Liturgy Liturgical Press and S P C K 2003 to which this study serves as a companion volume Journey to Jesus Kent Jorgen Bureson, Rhoda Grever Schuler, 2025-06-03 When many Christian congregations are asking How can we draw new members into our midst the authors reframe the question How can congregations make new disciples and deepen the faith of long time Christians Rediscovery of the early church catechumenate provides a means to form new disciples in today's culture Inspiring case studies of four congregations emphasize the contextual flexibility of adult faith formation Interviews with catechumenal leaders and participants in adult faith formation reveal how a catechumenate that is central to congregational life can energize and orient the people of God toward the mission of God Opening windows into congregational life especially at worship those who had journeyed through the adult faith formation process describe their experiences and the profound changes that took place in them Adult faith formation is a journey not a program of belonging believing and behaving that draws people into Christ's orbit for life As one participant said For the first time I understood what it meant to be a Christian Through the adult catechumenate she heard the voice of Christ calling her to new life and a rich baptismal identity Wide Welcome Jessicah Krey Duckworth, 2013-06-01 Jessicah Krey Duckworth presents the stark differences between the established congregation which cares for current members and congregational identity and the disestablished one which gains purpose and identity in the task of relating to the newcomer By allowing the questions insights and experiences of newcomers to reverberate through the entire congregation both they and the church are changed Wide Welcome does far more than point out the faults and weaknesses in current practice Duckworth intentionally lays out possible designs for newcomer welcome that are local and particular Book jacket The Christian Life Dennis Bushkofsky, Craig A. Satterlee, 2008-05-30 The Christian Life focuses on the formative role of baptism not only for the individual being baptized but the church This book examines the related rites of affirmation welcome to baptism and confession and moves to consider other rites in which the baptismal center is clearly seen The Many Presences of Christ Timothy Fitzgerald, David A. Lysik, 1999 Essays discussing the meaning of Christ's presence Practical Theology Richard R. Osmer, 2008-07-02 Every church congregation encounters challenging situations some the same the world over and others specific to each church Richard Osmer here seeks to teach congregational leaders including but not limited to clergy the requisite knowledge and skills to meet such situations with sensitivity and creativity Osmer develops a framework for practical theological interpretation in congregations by focusing on four key questions What is going on in a given context Why is this going on What ought to be going on and How might the leader shape the context to better embody Christian witness and mission The book is unique in its attention to interdisciplinary issues and the ways that theological reflection is grounded in the spirituality of leaders Useful accessible and lively with lots of specific examples and case studies Osmer's Practical Theology effectively equips congregational leaders to guide their communities with theological integrity The Teaching Ministry of Congregations Richard Robert Osmer, 2005-01-01 In this important and groundbreaking book Osmer develops a practical theology of the teaching ministry He begins with the Apostle Paul identifying in Paul's letters to his congregations the core tasks of the teaching ministry The Unnecessary Pastor Marva Dawn, Eugene Peterson, 1999-11-17 Best selling authors Marva Dawn and Eugene Peterson offer encouragement to pastors Pastors are strategically placed to counter the culture No other profession looks so inoffensive but is in fact so dangerous to the status quo Their weapon A gospel that is profoundly countercultural But standing firm in today's world isn't easy Powerful forces both subtle and obvious attempt to domesticate pastors to make them in a word unnecessary In this book two of today's most respected authors help pastors recover their gospel identity and maintain a pure vision of Christian leadership Marva Dawn and Eugene Peterson reconnect pastors with the biblical texts that will train them as countercultural servants of the gospel Marva Dawn looks to Paul's letter to the Ephesians for instruction for churches seeking to live faithfully in today's world In turn Eugene Peterson explores Romans 1 and 2 Timothy and Titus drawing from them the correct view of pastoral identity The Church in Act Maxwell E. Johnson, 2015 The Church in Act explores the dynamics of ecclesial and liturgical theology examining the body of Christ in action Maxwell E Johnson provides in this volume historical and doctrinal thinking on a diversity of liturgical subjects under the umbrella of Lutheran liturgical theology in ecumenical conversation From baptismal spirituality to Eucharistic concerns the volume offers a robust account of the liturgical sacramental and spiritual practices of the church for scholars students pastors and others who seek to minister in an ecumenical context with increased understanding and insight The Evangelizing Church Richard H. Bliese, Craig Van Gelder, The Evangelizing Church moves from theory to practice as it relates the theology of evangelism to the life of congregations that are seeking to proclaim the gospel in the emerging postmodern context It provides congregations with perspectives on how to utilize this theology in shaping the practice of evangelism within their church life Baptism Today Thomas F. Best, 2008 Our common belonging to Christ through baptism creates a bond that transcends the historic and theological differences among the churches and the mutual recognition of baptism has emerged as a cornerstone of the modern ecumenical movement Yet significant differences some threatening the search for the unity of the Church remain This book explores the significance of baptism for the churches and the ecumenical movement today Descriptive articles explain the understanding and practice of baptism within a wide range of Christian churches and confessions these are complemented by baptismal liturgies from many churches examples of mutual recognition agreements and reflections on topics such as the role of baptism in increasingly secularized societies The volume is enhanced by survey articles by prominent liturgists reviewing the current opportunities and challenges facing the churches in the area of baptism This book will be an important resource for all who wish to explore the understanding and practice of baptism and its role in the life of the churches and of the ecumenical movement today

The Reform of Baptism and Confirmation in American Lutheranism Jeffrey A. Truscott, 2003-10-28 This resource examines the historical and theological background of the rites used for baptism and confirmation in the Lutheran Book of Worship 1978 The introduction of the LBW as the standard book in Lutheran worship not only provided North American Lutherans with a new rite for baptism but also new understandings of the meaning of baptism Baptism was suddenly seen as being central to Christian identity rather than merely serving as an infant rite of passage performed occasionally in private It also allowed for full participation of the liturgical assembly and employed a greater use of ritual and gesture Simultaneously the greater stress on baptism was accompanied by an attempt to downplay the theological and liturgical importance of confirmation the centerpiece of Lutheran spiritual formation for those persons baptized in infancy Confirmation was revised as the Affirmation of Baptism allowing it only a secondary role as a part of the original rite of baptism Truscott argues that these changes have affected how North American Lutherans think about and practice Christian initiation He also critically evaluates the LBW rites and makes proposals for the future renewal of Christian initiation in North American Lutheranism
