They Shall Have Stars James Blish, 1974 They Shall Have Stars James Benjamin BLISH, 1968 They shall have stars James Blish, 1974 Lost? Anthony Carragher, 2017-10-17 As Liverpool F C reach their 125th anniversary amidst the celebrations doubts persist Are they still elite Can their prolonged title drought be ended Foreign owners say they came to win but the trophy cabinet lies bare Where to next for the reds Lost explores the gloried past the moneyed present and the uncertain future of both Liverpool F C and the English game at large Have they lost their way Liverpool F C s most famous manager Bill Shankly declared that the club exists to win trophies and for many years this maxim proved true as Liverpool became one of the most successful clubs in European football and dominated the scene in England for over two decades Yet recently the victories have dried up and Liverpool have not won the league title in over a quarter of a century Football is also in a state of flux as major TV deals have made the Premier league the wealthiest in the world but the gap between the elite clubs and those striving to catch up widens Has the game lost it s soul Who will rise and who will fall as a new uncharted era in football unfolds Lost captures exclusive interviews with key figures including former Liverpool managers Brendan Rogers and Roy Evans the Shankly family and a whole host of footballing legends past and present The book also includes reflective pieces on an array of Premier League clubs from both a sporting and cultural perspective looking not just at the team in isolation but also at the communities and landscapes that shape them Restless Travellers Antonio José Miralles Pérez, 2011-08-08 The first part of this book deals with Britain s imperial age its militants and its critics The selection of works generates a large field of debate explored using traditional or innovative approaches The 19th century is presented as a time for writers J E Aylmer E Marryat Norris G A Henty Conan Doyle who tell stories of Europeans venturing forth into uncivilised regions of the world where they meet other races But writers of a different outlook are also considered Before the twilight of Empire women were born in England Virginia Woolf and in Ireland Elizabeth Bowen who would use the ductile means of literature to narrate journeys into the female self instead of masculine tales set in distant lands The imperial experience is a subject of concern and reflection with special interest when authored by natives of former colonies such as Michael Ondaatje s Hindu Sirk hero in The English Patient and the Nigerian girls in some of Patience Agbabi s poems The idea of travelling into or out of the culture to which one apparently belongs and the contradictory feelings such an experience causes pervades the writer s mind and the ensuing narrative The second part can be regarded as a North American miscellany mostly devoted to the African culture although also dealing with European heritage In order to recognise Asian and South American influences as well authors such as Fred Wah Ariel Dorfman and Julia Alvarez have been included Black literature is represented by two 19th century writers Mary Ann Shadd and Martin R Delany who remind us of the fight against slavery and segregation and the path to equality Various 20th century writers Toni Morrison Ernest Gaines Harryette Mullen August Wilson address the African Americans quest for identity presented by some as a journey southwards away from the place of birth or an unsatisfactory life and in search of self knowledge in the land of their forefathers These journeys provide materials for different genres and tones enabling readers to examine the aspirations and fears of a community whose contribution to the history and literature of America has stimulated continuous study The two parts of the book are connected by the underlying discussion of essential conflicts that have occupied travellers traversing imperial spaces or experiencing foreign lands as well as travellers who instead of exotic adventures or romantic sojourns want to settle in a new country be accepted by a nation their ancestors did not know or exercise rights they were denied on their native soil

Achievement Literary Award from the South African Ministry of Arts and Culture A year before receiving this acknowledgement of his contribution to local literature he had already embarked on the major project currently under discussion Several visits to Australia had ignited his interest in the Out of Africa hypothesis of modern humanity's peopling of the world Walking to Australia has been the result of extensive travel in the countries occupying the northern shores of the Indian Ocean and of seven years of intermittent researching and writing The book describes a 21st century journey following the direction taken by anatomically modern humans who left the African nursery around 80000 years ago and reached Australia 20000 years later Along the way they laid the genetic foundations for humanity's oldest civilizations and ultimately inhabited every corner of the globe The result of these travels is not a scientific treatise Although the science is not ignored the centre lies elsewhere The author undertakes this west to east endeavor in the imagined company of his autistic grandson who serves both as confidant and as a human archetype This allows the book to verge upon a unique blend of factual travel writing and an almost magical internalised interpretation What the two travellers find together is a tangle of new experiences and responses from which the linkages between primeval past and complex present gradually emerge Here is a work of literary travel writing that describes an enchanted journey through some of the ancient places of the world and into the currently deeply troubled heart of the human adventure The evidence encountered on the journey suggests that a fundamental universality of humanity's place in the cosmos lies beneath all regional differences and is characterised as much by humility and co operation as it is by the imperative to survive and or the will to power The book does not set out to prove a point however but to celebrate the complexity of human responses It is more a creative work than it is a dissertation with an unambiguous conclusion Nevertheless the bibliography gives an indication of some of the sources used which includes the work of historians archaeologists political scientists biographers and psychologists as well as authors writing on the various religions of the world
