Funeral Rites in Contemporary Korea Gil-Soo Han, 2019-05-22 This book explores 21st century Korean society on the basis of its dramatically transforming and rapidly expanding commercial funeral industry With insights into contemporary Confucianism shamanism and filial piety as well as modernisation urbanisation the division of labour and the digitalisation of consumption it is the first study of its kind to offer a sophisticated integrated sociological analysis of how the commodification of death intersects with capitalism popular culture and everyday life in contemporary Korea Through innovative analyses of funeral advertising and journalism screen and literary representations of funerals online media consumer accounts of using funeral services and other sources it offers a complex picture of the widespread effects of economic development urbanisation and modernisation in South Korean society over the past quarter century In the aftermath of the Korean economic miracle novel ways of paying respect to deceased kin have emerged using Max Weber's concept of pariah capitalism Gil Soo Han shows how the heightened obsession with and boom in the commodification of death in Korea reflects radical transformations in both capital and culture Winner of Korean Education Minister's Book Prize 2020 Reimagining Nation and Nationalism in Multicultural East Asia Sungmoon Kim, Hsin-wen Lee, 2017-09-14 Since the late 1980s many East Asian countries have become more multicultural a process marked by increased democracy and pluralism despite the continuing influence of nationalism which has forced these countries in the region to re envision their nations Many such countries have had to reconsider their constitutional make up their terms of citizenship and the ideal of social harmony This has resulted in new immigration and border control policies and the revisiting of laws regarding labor policies sociopolitical discrimination and socioeconomic welfare This book explores new perspectives concepts and theories that are socially relevant culturally suitable and normatively attractive in the East Asia context It not only outlines the particular experiences of nation citizenship and nationalism in East Asian countries but also places them within the wider theoretical context The contributors look at how nationalism under the force of multiculturalism or vice versa affects East Asian societies including China Japan Korea Taiwan and Hong Kong differently The key themes are Democracy and equality Confucianism's relationship with nationalism cosmopolitanism and multiculturalism China's use of its political institutions to initiate and sustain nationalism the impact of globalization on nationalism in South Korea Taiwan and Japan the role of democracy in reinvigorating indigenous cultures in Taiwan

Keiretsu Economy - New Economy? R. Kensy, 2001-04-02 This book combines a theoretical study of Japan's economic structures and multinational enterprises with a post modern analysis of the contemporary multinational enterprise The author considers the appropriateness of the post modern approach for discussing economic activities in particular the New Economy and also Japanese society and culture Kensy analyses Japan's economic structure interpreting its methods strategies and results in a post modern context and presents a survey of socio economic development in Japan since the beginning of westernization He goes on to discuss Japanese models for the transformation of society in the future with particular reference to the Keiretsu Finding Japan to be a truly postmodern society Kensy shows that Japan is prepared to be a leader in the New Economy Kensy takes an innovative and stimulating approach that will be of interest to those seeking to better understand the development and future of the economic structures of Japan

Ethnic Nationalism in Korea Gi-Wook Shin, 2006-03-22 This book explains the roots politics and legacy of Korean ethnic nationalism which is based on the sense of a shared bloodline and ancestry Belief in a racially distinct and ethnically homogeneous nation is widely shared on both sides of the Korean peninsula although some scholars believe it is a myth with little historical basis Finding both positions problematic and treating identity formation as a social and historical construct that has crucial behavioral consequences this book examines how such a blood based notion has become a dominant source of Korean identity overriding other forms of identity in the modern era It also looks at how the politics of national identity have played out in various contexts in Korea semicolonialism civil war authoritarian politics democratization territorial division and globalization

Democracy after Virtue Sungmoon Kim, 2018-05-11 Is Confucianism compatible with democracy In this book Sungmoon Kim lays out a normative theory of Confucian democracy pragmatic Confucian democracy to address questions of the right to political participation instrumental and intrinsic values of democracy democratic procedure and substance punishment and criminal justice social and economic justice and humanitarian intervention Kim shows us that the question is not so much about the compatibility of Confucianism and democracy but of how the two systems can benefit from each other

Levinas, the Frankfurt School and Psychoanalysis C.

Fred Alford, 2002 Insightful and accessible critique of postmodern ethics

Political Psychology Kristen Renwick

Monroe, 2001-12-01 With a list of contributors that reads like a Who's Who of political psychology this comprehensive volume introduces the major concepts debates and themes in the field and provides an overview of its intellectual development its disparate parts the major controversies and some suggestions for the future direction of the field

Whistleblowers C. Fred Alford, 2016-11-15 In a dark departure from our standard picture of whistleblowers C. Fred Alford offers a chilling account of the world of people who have come forward to protest organizational malfeasance in government agencies and in the private sector The conventional story high minded individual fights soulless organization is persecuted yet triumphs in the end is seductive and pervasive In speaking with whistleblowers and their families lawyers and therapists Alford discovers that the reality of whistleblowing is grim Few whistleblowers succeed in effecting change even fewer are regarded as heroes or martyrs Alford mixes narrative analysis with political insight to offer a frank picture of whistleblowing and a controversial view of organizations According to Alford the organization as an institution is dedicated to the destruction of the moral individualist Frequently he claims the organization succeeds which means that the whistleblowers are broken unable to reconcile their actions and beliefs with the responses they receive from others In addition to being mistreated by organizations whistleblowers often do not receive support from their families and communities In order to make sense of their stories Alford claims some whistleblowers must set aside the things they have always believed that loyalty is larger than the herd instinct that someone in charge will do the right thing that the family is a haven from a heartless world Alford argues that few whistleblowers recover from their experience and that even then they live in a world very different from the one they knew before their confrontation with the organization

Narrative, Nature, and the Natural Law C.

Alford, 2010-05-10 Beginning with Saint Thomas Aquinas and ending with the latest developments in international human rights Narrative Nature and the Natural Law From Aquinas to International Human Rights brings a fairly traditional interpretation of the natural law to some rather untraditional problems and areas including evolutionary natural law

Confucian Constitutionalism Sungmoon Kim, 2023 In Confucian Constitutionalism Sungmoon Kim presents a constitutional theory of democratic self government that is normatively appealing and politically practicable in East Asia's historically Confucian societies which are increasingly pluralist multicultural and rights sensitive While Confucian political theorists are preoccupied with how to build a Confucianism inspired institution that would make a given polity more meritorious Kim offers a robust normative theory of Confucian constitutionalism what he calls Confucian democratic constitutionalism with special attention to value pluralism and moral disagreement Aiming to contribute to both political theory and comparative law Confucian Constitutionalism explains how Confucian democratic constitutionalism differs from and improves upon liberal legal constitutionalism political constitutionalism and Confucian meritocratic constitutionalism

Public Theology for the 21st Century Duncan B. Forrester, William Storrar, Andrew Morton, 2004-01-01 The book is a unique stocktaking by a leading international group of theologians social scientists and other scholars on issues facing public theology at the beginning of the 21st century It combines retrospect and prospect in that it reflects on the issues and approaches that have characterized public theology in the 20th century especially its latter half and attempts to anticipate those which will or should come to the fore in the 21st century seeking to discern continuities and changes Three opening chapters deal with the overall theme of public or political theology with Jurgen Moltmann giving a critical historical account from the Second World War onwards Raymond Plant relating such theology to cultural pluralism and Andrew Morton illustrating it from the work of Duncan Forrester These are followed by pairs of contributions relating public theology to more specific topicsr History Technology and Creation Globalization Spirituality Punishment and Forgiveness Medical Ethics Tolerance and Human Rights Social Exclusion and Equality

Unexpected Alliances Young-a Park,2014-11-05 Since 1999 South Korean films have dominated roughly 40 to 60 percent of the Korean domestic box office matching or even surpassing Hollywood films in popularity Why is this and how did it come about In Unexpected Alliances Young a Park seeks to answer these questions by exploring the cultural and institutional roots of the Korean film industry s phenomenal success in the context of Korea s political transition in the late 1990s and early 2000s The book investigates the unprecedented interplay between independent filmmakers the state and the mainstream film industry under the post authoritarian administrations of Kim Dae Jung 1998 2003 and Roh Moo Hyun 2003 2008 and shows how these alliances were critical in the making of today s Korean film industry During South Korea s post authoritarian reform era independent filmmakers with activist backgrounds were able to mobilize and transform themselves into important players in state cultural institutions and in negotiations with the purveyors of capital Instead of simply labeling the alliances selling out or co optation this book explores the new spaces institutions and conversations which emerged and shows how independent filmmakers played a key role in national protests against trade liberalization actively contributing to the creation of the very idea of a Korean national cinema worthy of protection Independent filmmakers changed not only the film institutions and policies but the ways in which people produce consume and think about film in South Korea
