New Essays on Normative Realism ,2025-08-07 It s difficult to explain the point of normative judgments judgments like You ought to donate to charity or You ought to believe that smoking is bad for you given the evidence without assuming that such judgments express objective truths And yet philosophers have always been puzzled by such a realism about the normative for an array of conceptual epistemological and metaphysical reasons This book gathers together a collection of essays on this classic philosophical problem authored by a mix of senior and junior contributors Taken together they illustrate the great progress that has been made on these fundamental but thorny issues They also introduce some new puzzles about normative realism which had not been previously appreciated The topics covered include the objectivity epistemology and metaphysics of normative judgments the possibility of alternative normative conceptual schemes and the way in which normative issues arise in such disparate areas as arithmetic and aesthetics The volume opens with a substantial Introduction by the editors which provides a contemporary overview of the landscape of issues facing a realism about the normative and situates the authors contributions within it Research in Mind, Brain, and Education Marc S. Schwartz,E. Juliana Paré-Blagoev,2017-10-05 Research in Mind Brain and Education cuts across and unites areas of Mind Brain and Education MBE to introduce foundational and emerging topics in the field With chapters written by leading scholars this book offers empirical research on specific topics including autism math reading and emotion as well as conceptual guidance on the role of models and epistemological considerations relevant to MBE Each chapter seeks to provide a platform for exploring questions tools and models central to current work in MBE by emphasizing investigative focus and influences Designed both as a supplementary text for advanced undergraduate or early graduate training and as an introduction for educators researchers and policy makers Research in Mind Brain and Education showcases the collaborative innovative and dynamic approach to research that is fundamental to the discipline How Philosophers Argue Fernando Leal,Hubert Marraud,2022-02-21 This volume presents a double argumentative analysis of the debate between Bertrand Russell and Frederick Copleston on the existence of God It includes an introduction justifying the choice of text and describing the historical and philosophical background of the debate It also provides a transcript of the debate based in part on the original recording The argumentative analyses occupy Parts I and II of the book In Part I the argumentative process is analysed by means of the ideal model of critical discussion the workhorse of pragma dialectics Part I shows how the two parties go through the four stages of a critical discussion It highlights the questions raised over and beyond the presiding question of whether God exists and examines almost a hundred questions that are raised Many are left in the air whereas a few others give rise to sundry sub discussions or meta dialogues In Part II the theoretical framework of argument dialectic is put to work argument structures are identified by means of punctuation marks argumentative connectors and operators allowing to see the argumentative exchange as the collaborative construction of a macro argument Such a macro argument is both a joint product of the arguers and a complex structure representing the dialectical relationships between the individual arguments combined in it Finally the complementarity of the two approaches is addressed Thus the book can be described as an exercise in adversarial collaboration

What is Architecture? Andrew Ballantyne,2013-11-05 Architecture can influence the way we feel and can help us along as we go about our lives or sabotage our habitual ways of doing things The essays collected here challenge and help to define a view of architecture which ranges from the minimal domesticity of Diogenes barrel to the exuberant experiments of the contemporary avant garde There are essays by philosophers architects and art historians including Roger Scruton Bernard Tschumi Demetri Pophyrios Kenneth Frampton Diane Ghirardo and David Goldblatt

Contradictions José M. Musacchio,2012-05-22 Contradictions is a general interest book that exposes the incompatibility between popular religious beliefs and the scientific view of human nature It begins with a survey of the evolution of religions and their continuing often irrational influences in modern society Then based on his long experience in neuroscience the author takes issue with Decartes about the duality of body and soul He presents case studies of patients with brain diseases and from these deduces that the soul far from being separate and supernatural is no more or less than our way of experiencing our brains and which correspondingly disintegrates when they do Convincing clinical findings and powerful arguments about the universality of truth make this book a bold contribution to the debate about belief and religion in the modern world

Space from Zeno to Einstein Nick Huggett,1999-04-01 Learning through original texts can be a powerful heuristic tool This book collects a dozen classic readings that are generally accepted as the most significant contributions to the philosophy of space The readings have been selected both on the basis of their relevance to recent debates on the nature of space and on the extent to which they carry premonitions of contemporary physics In his detailed commentaries Nick Huggett weaves together the readings and links them to our modern understanding of the subject Together the readings indicate the general historical development of the concept of space and in his commentaries Huggett explains their logical relations He also uses our contemporary understanding of space to help clarify the key ideas of the texts One goal is to prepare the reader both scientist and nonscientist to learn and understand relativity theory the basis of our current understanding of space The readings are by Zeno Plato Aristotle Euclid Descartes Newton Leibniz Clarke Berkeley Kant Mach Poincar and Einstein

Imperfect Fit Allen Fisher,2016-11-15 Imperfect Fit is a dynamic study of the relationships between modern art and avant garde poetry from the 1950s to the present that provides fascinating glimpses into both Allen Fisher s remarkable work as a poet painter and critic as well as the state of avant garde aesthetics as a whole
