Threat by Example Martin Sprouse, 1990 Maximum Rocknroll, 2006 Quality and documentation Gudrun Libnow, 1997 Museum Practices and the Posthumanities Fiona R. Cameron, 2023-10-24 This book critiques modern museologies and curatorial practices that have been complicit in emerging existential crises. It confidently presents novel more than human curatorial visions, methods, frameworks, policies, and museologies radically refiguring the epistemological foundations of curatorial, museological thinking and practice for a habitable planet. Modern curatorial and museological practices are dominated by modern humanism in which capital growth, social technological advancement, hubris, extraction, speciesist logics, and colonial domination predominate often without reflection. While history, science, and technology museums and their engagement with non-human worlds have always been ecological, as an empirical reality, the human-centred frameworks and forms of human agency that institutions deploy tend to be non-cognizant of this reality. Museum Practices and the Posthumanities: Curating for Planetary Habitability reveals how these practices are ill-equipped to deal with the contemporary world of rapid digital transformations post-Covid, living climate change, and its impacts among other societal changes, and it shows how museums might best meet these challenges by thinking with and in more than human worlds. This book is aimed at museological scholars and museum professionals and it will provide them with the inspiration to conduct research on and curate from a different ecological reference point to promote a world good enough for all things to thrive in radical co-existence.

Paperbound Books in Print, 1991 Linguistic Landscapes Beyond the Language Classroom Greg Niedt, Corinne A. Seals, 2020-12-10 Linguistic landscapes can play an important role in educating individuals beyond formal pedagogical environments. This book argues that anywhere can be a space for people to learn from displayed texts, images, and other communicated signs, and consequently a space where teachable cultural moments are created. Following language learning trajectories that exit through the language classroom into city streets, public offices, museums, and monuments, this volume presents innovative work demonstrating that anyone can learn from the linguistic landscape that surrounds them. Offering a bridge between theoretical research and practical application, chapters consider how we make sense of places by understanding how the landscape is used to express claim and contest identities and ideologies. In this way, Linguistic Landscapes Beyond the Language Classroom highlights the unexpected potential of the informal settings for learning and for teachers to expand their students' intercultural experience.
