Movies and Midrash Wendy I. Zierler, 2017-08-15 Finalist for the 2017 National Jewish Book Award in Modern Jewish Thought and Experience presented by the Jewish Book Council Movies and Midrash uses cinema as a springboard to discuss central Jewish texts and matters of belief A number of books have drawn on films to explicate Christian theology and belief but Wendy I Zierler is the first to do so from a Jewish perspective exploring what Jewish tradition text and theology have to say about the lessons and themes arising from influential and compelling films The book uses the method of inverted midrash while classical rabbinical midrash begins with exegesis of a verse and then introduces a mashal parable as a means of further explication Zierler turns that process around beginning with the culturally familiar cinematic parable and then analyzing related Jewish texts Each chapter connects a secular film to a different central theme in classical Jewish sources or modern Jewish thought Films covered include The Truman Show truth Memento memory Crimes and Misdemeanors sin Magnolia confession and redemption The Descendants birthright Forrest Gump cleverness and simplicity and The Hunger Games creation of humanity in God's image among others

The First Few Minutes of Spanish Language Films Richard K. Curry, 2017-02-02 The first few minutes of a film orient the viewer offering cues for a richer more nuanced reading With this premise the author provides many insights into the history of Spanish language film encouraging an enhanced understanding of the Spanish Hispanic canon commonly taught in courses on film The author explores El espiritu de la colmena 1973 La historia oficial 1985 Fresa y chocolate 1994 El crimen del padre Amaro 2002 Abre los ojos 1997 Te doy mis ojos 2003 and Carlos Saura's flamenco trilogy Bodas de sangre 1981 Carmen 1983 and El amor brujo 1986 among others

Public Intellectuals in South Africa Chris Broodryk, 2021-07-01 This edited collection gives voice to neglected public intellectuals in the arts humanities and journalism in South Africa who gave voice and presence to those who have been marginalized and silenced in South African history Edward Said described a public intellectual as someone who uses accessible language to address a designated public on matters of social and political significance The essays in Public Intellectuals in South Africa apply this interpretive prism and activist principle to a South African context and tell the stories of well known figures as well as some that have been mostly forgotten They include Magema Fuze John Dube Aggrey Klaaste Mewa Ramgobin and Koos Roets alongside marginalized figures such as Elijah Makiwane Mandisi Sindo William Pretorius and Dr Thomas Duncan Greenlees

The essays capture the thoughts and opinions of these historical figures who the contributors argue are public intellectuals who spoke out against the corruption of power promoted a progressive politics that challenged the colonial project and its legacies and encouraged a sustained dissent of the political status quo Offering fascinating accounts of the life and work of these writers critics and activists across a range of historical contexts and disciplines from journalism and arts criticism to history and politics it enriches the historical record of South African public intellectual life This volume makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates about the value of research in the arts and humanities and what constitutes public intellectualism in South Africa

Representing Education in Film David Resnick, 2018-01-08 This book presents an incisive analysis of how fundamental issues in education are portrayed in film Focusing on recent films the author draws on a wide range of educational thinkers and fields of research to examine issues not discussed before Resnick challenges our assumptions and enriches our general knowledge on critical issues like funding for arts education what we mean by successful civic education and the educational value of sports This project which includes topics such as the gender gap in civic education religious education and what animated films have to say about human education can serve as a viewer's guide to selected educational issues in film and may spur the intelligent use of films in public debate

Communication and Technology Lorenzo Cantoni, James A. Danowski, 2015-08-31 The primary goal of the Communication and Technology volume 5th within the series Handbooks of Communication Science is to provide the reader with a comprehensive compilation of key scholarly literature identifying theoretical issues emerging concepts current research specialized methods and directions for future investigations The internet and web have become the backbone of many new communication technologies often transforming older communication media through digitization to make them compatible with the net Accordingly this volume focuses on internet web technologies The essays cover various infrastructure technologies ranging from different kinds of hard wired elements to a range of wireless technologies such as WiFi mobile telephony and satellite technologies Audio visual communication is discussed with reference to large format motion pictures medium sized television and video formats and the small screen mobile smartphone There is also coverage of audio only media such as radio music and voice telephony text media in such venues as online newspapers blogs discussion forums and mobile texting and multi media technologies such as games and virtual reality

Film Texture: Subtext and Art Direction Md Ishtiaq Hossain, 2024-08-13 The book Film Textures Subtext and Art Direction is an important source of information for all film buffs and interested readers including university film and media students Although the book has not been able to fully present the issues of subtext and art direction it has tried its best to present the true form of subtext and art direction through explanation It discusses film structure plot construction character development art direction and various techniques of using subtext in detail with film examples Movies are considered as one of the mediums of entertainment Although every day there is an increase in innovation in the various disciplines of cinema still cinema has retained the entertainment of people through its well organized aesthetic presentation The use of art direction and subtext can be seen in countless films from the beginning of cinema till now The discussion text will explore the subtext by analyzing notable films from different periods and countries Understanding the subtext of the film and the underlying message of the filmmakers creates the ability to understand the essence of the film evaluate it and understand the story These films represent different time periods and different geographical contexts which lends particular importance to the creators creativity cultural influence and use of subtext In depth analysis of film elements and subtext will encourage students to apply subtext to film projects Art direction directs the film s actors controls the artistic and dramatic aspects of the film and fulfills the visionary vision of the screenplay Art direction encompasses the film s overall visual approach which determines the appearance of the film s environment including the location color texture space and objects used in the scene Also it creates the aesthetics of the actor s presentation costumes and makeup Art direction creates the overall color palette for the film which can have a profound effect on the film The production designer oversees the artistic look of the film and facilitates and executes the creative intent The art director creates everything from the largest scale locations to the smallest details At a finer level art direction involves several other important aspects For example tweaking subtle adjustments to processes or systems and locations so that the film s visualization on screen looks inherently realistic lifelike and accurate is known as set dressing Art direction includes props and costumes When the elements are chosen correctly it makes the scene more believable The overall aesthetic is guided by the production designer and implemented by the art director which influences the final film as much as the lighting story and dialogue Art generally refers to qualitative aesthetic beauty Film is a complete entertainment language consisting of story sound light and other elements Art direction in a film must be accurate and appropriate selection of shooting locations location decoration selection of props acting and appropriate use of sound and lighting based on the selected story make realistic visualization of the film possible Usually movies are realistic depictions of fictional stories The use of correct acceptable and appropriate sound lighting and art direction in film production is essential to present the film realistically to the audience on the screen In film subtext is the underlying meaning that enriches the content of scenes dialogues or characters but never directly manifests itself in visual cues dialogue or story narration However the subtext can be fully inferred through the scenes dialogues and actions expressions or context of the characters in the film
