Union With Christ Reframing Theology And Ministry For The Church:

Union with Christ J. Todd Billings, 2011-11 An accomplished theologian recovers the biblical theme of union with Christ showing how it affects current theological and ministry issues Themelios, Volume 37, Issue 1 D. A. Carson, 2015-01-27 Themelios is an international evangelical peer reviewed theological journal that expounds and defends the historic Christian faith Themelios is published three times a year online at The Gospel Coalition <http://thegospelcoalition.org/themelios> and in print by Wipf and Stock Its primary audience is theological students and pastors though scholars read it as well Themelios began in 1975 and was operated by RTSF UCCF in the UK and it became a digital journal operated by The Gospel Coalition in 2008 The editorial team draws participants from across the globe as editors essayists and reviewers General Editor D A Carson Trinity Evangelical Divinity School Managing Editor Brian Tabb Bethlehem College and Seminary Consulting Editor Michael J Ovey Oak Hill Theological College Administrator Andrew David Naselli Bethlehem College and Seminary Book Review Editors Jerry Hwang Singapore Bible College Alan Thompson Sydney Missionary Nathan A Finn Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Hans Madueme Covenant College Dane Ortlund Crossway Jason Sexton Golden Gate Baptist Seminary Editorial Board Gerald Bray Beeson Divinity School Lee Gatiss Wales Evangelical School of Theology Paul Helseth University of Northwestern St Paul Paul House Beeson Divinity School Ken Magnuson The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Jonathan Pennington The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary James Robson Wycliffe Hall Mark D Thompson Moore Theological College Paul Williamson Moore Theological College Stephen Witmer Pepperell Christian Fellowship Robert Yarbrough Covenant Seminary Homo Florens? Nadia Marais, 2023-10-09 What does it mean to flourish Human flourishing lies at the heart of the good news of the gospel and yet contemporary theologies know not only one way of speaking about what it means to flourish If we embed our theological grammars of flourishing in the doctrine of salvation as the doctrine in which theological flourishing talk is arguably rooted and from which rich fruit may be borne there is not one but various ways in which to speak about what it means to flourish Yet what governs our speaking Why do we speak of flourishing as we do The various conceptions of human flourishing that are outlined in this book piety joy and comfort being fully alive healing and dignity grace happiness and blessing represent a collection of attempts not only to imagine human flourishing but also to imagine ways of speaking about human flourishing Perhaps what theology could offer to the vibrant and robust conversations on human flourishing lies exactly in the reminder to take care about how we speak about that which is truly and deeply human our longing to flourish Ecclesial Leadership as Friendship Chloe Lynch, 2019-03-01 When it comes to talking about the activity of directing the church the language of leadership and leaders is increasingly popular Yet what is leadership and how might theological narratives better resource the discourse and practice of leadership in ecclesial contexts In identifying and critiquing managerialism as a dominant narrative of leadership in the Western church this book calls for an alternative approach founded on the concept of friendship Engaging with the wider field of leadership studies the book establishes an understanding of leadership activity and brings it into conversation with an incarnational ecclesiology The result is a prophetic reimagining of ecclesial leadership in terms of a relational kenotic praxis This praxis of mutuality and love is framed here in the rich language of Christian friendship The book also wrestles deeply with the embodiment of such a praxis making explicit the power behaviours typical of friendship leadership and offering constructive guidance for practitioners in the task of implementation within a complex and fractured world This book offers a new vision of the centrality of friendship to leadership of a healthy church community As such it will be of great use to scholars of practical theology ecclesiology and leadership as well as practitioners in church ministry

The Theater of God's Glory W. David O. Taylor, 2017-08-21 A theological framework for the liturgical arts rooted in John Calvin Both detractors and supporters of John Calvin have deemed him an enemy of the physical body a pessimist toward creation and a negative influence on the liturgical arts But says W David O Taylor that only tells half of the story Taylor examines Calvin's trinitarian theology as it intersects his doctrine of the physical creation in order to argue for a positive theological account of the liturgical arts He does so believing that Calvin's theology can serve perhaps surprisingly as a rich resource for understanding the theological purposes of the arts in corporate worship Drawing on Calvin's Institutes biblical commentaries sermons catechisms treatises and worship orders this book represents one of the most thorough investigations available of John Calvin's theology of the physical creation and the promising possibilities it opens up for the formative role of the arts in worship

Who God Says You Are Klyne R. Snodgrass, 2018-01-08 WHO ARE YOU For respected New Testament scholar Klyne Snodgrass this is the most important question a person can ask the question from which everything else in life flows Other questions follow What made you who you are Who gets to say who you are And perhaps most vital Who does God say you are In this book Snodgrass offers wise guidance to all who are wrestling with such universal human questions He examines nine factors including one's body personal history commitments and boundaries that shape human identity and he expertly draws out what the Bible tells us about who God says we are how we fit within God's purposes and how our God-given identity can and must impact the way we live our lives

The Word Enfleshed Oliver D. Crisp, 2016-09-20 A Fresh Theological Account of the Person and Work of Christ The literature on Christology is large and ever expanding The same is true for work on the atonement which has blossomed in the last decade Few studies attempt to connect the dots between these two theological topics however In this volume respected theologian Oliver Crisp offers a fresh analytic theological account of the person and work of Christ focusing on the theme of union with God Incarnate Along the way he engages a range of contemporary and historic Christian thinkers and tackles a number of key issues in contemporary discussions Wide ranging and carefully argued this unified account of the person and work of Christ will be of interest to scholars and students of Christian theology

Uncovering Calvin's God Forrest H. Buckner, 2020-08-20 Although God loves you is a common summary of the central message of Christian teaching and preaching a close reading of the Bible and attention to the Christian tradition will reveal passages of Scripture and Christian doctrines particularly John Calvin's doctrine of predestination that seem to undermine confidence in God's love for all people. For numerous theologians including many within the Reformed tradition the secret decree of Calvin's God to save some and condemn others seems to undercut completely one's assurance of salvation along with one's ability to trust in and worship God. However, pastor and scholar John Calvin confidently spoke of God as a loving Father throughout his teaching and preaching. In Uncovering Calvin's God, Forrest H. Buckner unearths Calvin's teaching about the God of love who reigns sovereign over predestination. Drawing upon sources from across Calvin's corpus, Buckner examines Calvin's teaching on the knowledge of God and the doctrine of predestination to provide a more robust and cohesive understanding of Calvin's theology, which Buckner then confirms through an extensive examination of Calvin's preaching in Geneva. He then offers a critical comparison of Calvin's approach with the teaching of Luther, Zwingli, Bullinger, Arminius, and Barth. Using Calvin's system as a starting point, this book helps readers perceive the essentials and trade-offs of any doctrine of predestination that takes seriously both the Bible and the loving God revealed in Jesus Christ. Assurance of Adoption Chun Tse, 2020-09-21

This book presents a new paradigm for assurance of salvation. It argues that an adoption-centric understanding of salvation based on union with Christ enables one to appreciate salvation in its fullest splendor. Seeing assurance from historical exegetical and theological perspectives, it contends that assurance of adoption is assurance of salvation. Hidden and Revealed Dmytro Bintsarovskiy, 2021-07-14

A major contribution to ecumenical reflection on the doctrine of God. The past century has seen renewed interest in the doctrine of God. While theological traditions disagree, their shared commitment to Nicene orthodoxy provides a common language for thinking and speaking about God. This dialogue has deepened our understanding of this shared way of thinking about God, but little has been done across ecumenical lines to explore God's hiddenness in revelation. In Hidden and Revealed, Dmytro Bintsarovskiy explores the hiddenness and revelation of God in two separate theological streams: Reformed and Orthodox. Bintsarovskiy shows that an understanding of both traditions reflects a deep structure of shared language, history, and commitments, while nevertheless reflecting real differences. With Herman Bavinck and John Meyendorff as his guides, Bintsarovskiy advances ecumenical dialogue on a doctrine central to our knowledge of God.
