Hansen,2013-05-14 Mountaineering has served as a metaphor for civilization triumphant A fascinating study of the first ascents of the major Alpine peaks and Mt Everest The Summits of Modern Man reveals the significance of our encounters with the world s most forbidding heights and how difficult it is to imagine nature in terms other than conquest and domination      Brentano's Book Chat ,1918

Posthumous America Benjamin Hoffmann,2018-05-15 Benjamin Hoffmann s Posthumous America examines the literary idealization of a lost American past in the works of French writers of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries For writers such as John Hector St John de Cr vec ur and Claude Fran ois de Lezay Marn sia America was never more potent as a driving ideal than in its loss Examining the paradoxical American paradise depicted in Cr vec ur s Lettres d un cultivateur am ricain 1784 the uchronotopia the imaginary perfect society set in America and based on what France might have become without the Revolution of Lezay Marn sia s Lettres crites des rives de l Ohio 1792 and the political and nationalistic motivations behind Fran ois Ren Chateaubriand s idealization of America in Voyage en Am rique 1827 and M moires d outre tombe 1850 Hoffmann shows how the authors liberties with the truth helped create the idealized and nostalgic representation of America that dominated the collective European consciousness of their times From a historical perspective Posthumous America works to determine when exactly these writers stopped transcribing what they actually observed in America and started giving imaginary accounts of their experiences A vital contribution to transatlantic studies this detailed exploration of French perspectives on the colonial era the War of Independence and the birth of the American Republic sheds new light on the French fascination with America Posthumous America will be invaluable for historians political scientists and specialists of literature whose scholarship looks at America through European eyes      Mexican Travel Writing Thea Pitman, 2008 This book is a detailed study of salient examples of Mexican travel writing from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries While scholars have often explored the close relationship between European or North American travel writing and the discourse of imperialism little has been written on how postcolonial subjects might relate to the genre This study first traces the development of a travel writing tradition based closely on European imperialist models in mid nineteenth century Mexico It then goes on to analyse how the narrative techniques of postmodernism and the political agenda of postcolonialism might combine to help challenge the genre s imperialist tendencies in late twentieth century works of travel writing focusing in particular on works by writers Juan Villoro Hector Perea and Fernando Solana Olivares      Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library.
