

Introduction to the History of the English Language

The English language has a long and rich history, evolving from its roots in Old English to the modern forms we use today. This course will explore the historical development of the language, from its origins in the Germanic tribes to its current status as a global lingua franca.

Key topics include the influence of Latin and French on Old English, the Middle English period, and the Great Vowel Shift. We will also examine the role of the printing press in the standardization of the language and the emergence of modern English.

The Oxford Handbook of International Law and Development Ruth Buchanan,Luis Eslava,Sundhya Pahuja,2024-02-15 The Oxford Handbook of International Law and Development is a unique overview of the field of international law and development examining how normative beliefs and assumptions around development are instantiated in law and critically examining disciplinary frameworks competing agendas legal actors and institutions and alternative futures

Including a Symposium on Bruce Caldwell's Beyond Positivism after 35 Years Luca Fiorito,Scott Scheall,Carlos Eduardo Suprinyak,2018-05-18 Volume 36A of Research in the History of Economic Thought and Methodology features a symposium on Bruce Caldwell s Beyond Positivism after 35 years The volume also features general research essays from Luis Mireles Flores and Alain Marciano Luca Fiorito presents a new discovery from the archives When Things Don't Fall Apart Ilene Grabel,2018-01-12 An account of the significant though gradual uneven disconnected ad hoc and pragmatic innovations in global financial governance and developmental finance induced by the global financial crisis In When Things Don t Fall Apart Ilene Grabel challenges the dominant view that the global financial crisis had little effect on global financial governance and developmental finance Most observers discount all but grand systemic ruptures in institutions and policy Grabel argues instead that the global crisis induced inconsistent and ad hoc discontinuities in global financial governance and developmental finance that are now having profound effects on emerging market and developing economies Grabel s chief normative claim is that the resulting incoherence in global financial governance is productive rather than debilitating In the age of productive incoherence a more complex dense fragmented and pluripolar form of global financial governance is expanding possibilities for policy and institutional experimentation policy space for economic and human development financial stability and resilience and financial inclusion Grabel draws on key theoretical commitments of Albert Hirschman to cement the case for the productivity of incoherence Inspired by Hirschman Grabel demonstrates that meaningful change often emerges from disconnected erratic experimental and inconsistent adjustments in institutions and policies as actors pragmatically manage in an evolving world Grabel substantiates her claims with empirically rich case studies that explore the effects of recent crises on networks of financial governance such as the G 20 transformations within the IMF institutional innovations in liquidity support and project finance from the national to the transregional levels and the rebranding of capital controls Grabel concludes with a careful examination of the opportunities and risks associated with the evolutionary transformations underway Social Science David C. Colander,2016-09-13 Social Science An Introduction to the Study of Society 16e approaches social science from a common sense perspective rather than from a conventional social science angle Readers will see how seemingly diverse disciplines intermingle anthropology and economics for example The goal of the book is to teach students critical thought and problem solving skills that will allow them to approach social issues in an unbiased manner New to this edition are significant updates on Race and the police More comparison contrasts of deviance and criminality Alternative pathways in criminal justice new technology such as self driving cars Gay marriage American political dynasties Refugee and immigration issues in Europe globally American political dynasties China s growing power New trade initiatives States in the Middle East Nuclear arms control Expanded web based ancillaries for students and teachers

Cases in Innovative Nonprofits Ram A. Cnaan,Diane Vinokur-Kaplan,2014-12-02 Become an innovator in the nonprofit world Student friendly and readable Cases in Innovative Nonprofits provides readers with current comparative case studies of innovative nonprofit organizations that are meeting the needs of humanity in both the U S and abroad Edited by well known scholars Ram A Cnaan and Diane Vinokur Kaplan this text provides inspiring examples of social entrepreneurs who have instituted new services to meet the needs of both new and long standing social problems Each case features either an unidentified need and its successful response or an existing need that was tackled in a unique and innovative manner The text is purposefully organized into four parts Part 1 Two conceptual chapters give the reader an understanding of what a nonprofit social innovation is and tools to analyze various social innovations in this volume and elsewhere Part 2 Ten cases reveal the innovative formation of new nonprofit organizations Part 3 Three cases emphasize innovation through collaboration Part 4 Five cases demonstrate innovations taking place within an existing nonprofit organization By using a simple identical format for each case this text facilitates student learning through comparative review providing a deeper understanding about the complexity and steps required to achieve nonprofit social innovation Speaking Justice to

Power Kim Forss,2017-09-08 Efficiency economy and equity are policy goals pursued by governments around the world but analysts and evaluators have devoted more effort to measuring and evaluating the first two In Speaking Justice to Power contributors examine the concept of equity the role it plays and its application in policy evaluation Here some of the most valuable thinkers in the area of policy studies address key questions How should evaluators develop criteria for measuring equity as they analyze both program and policy implementation as well as their impacts What distinctions among people should be taken into account when measuring and valuing impacts What sorts of data should be used to analyze processes and impacts in different settings How might such data be validated The contributors employ grounded theory thinking as they translate key ethical principles into their work and draw important lessons from their experiences The work discusses equity in interventions addressing a variety of social and environmental problems This volume continues the fine tradition of Transaction s Comparative Policy Evaluation series No Miracle Mitchell Wigdor,2016-05-23 No Miracle examines the role of institutions in bridging the digital divide between rich and poor nations and what that means for the country s integration into a global economy Shifting the debate from whether institutions are important to economic development to which institutions are important and how to build them Mitchell Wigdor expertly addresses fundamental shortcomings in the existing development literature by identifying specific institutions that mediate the relationship between Information and Communications Technology ICT and economic growth In doing so he challenges those concerned with development to shift their gaze from whether institutions are important to economic development to which institutions might be the focus of government efforts and how to build them Detailed case studies of the economic development strategies of Singapore and Malaysia from 1960 demonstrate that institution building and economic development may be as much about process as the specific policies governments pursue Written in accessible non technical language this book should be read by everyone concerned with economic growth both in less economically developed countries and the more prosperous including those in government international organizations NGOs universities policy makers and the private sector
