What Motivates Me Put Your Passions To Work:

What Motivates Me Adrian Gostick, Chester Elton, 2014-09-30 What Motivates Me will help readers align the work they do every day for the rest of their lives with what truly motivates them. It also includes a code to the Motivators Assessment. This is not a personality test but a scientifically valid assessment that digs straight to the core of what motivates you at work. The book also features a set of thought provoking exercises to help readers sculpt their jobs with 60 powerful strategies. After analyzing the results of 850 000 interviews the authors sought to discover why so many people are not as engaged and energized as they could be at work. They found those who are happiest and most successful are engaged in work that aligns with what motivates them. What Motivates Me offers an extensively tested method to help readers identify their core motivators and figure out the disconnects between their passions and their current work and guides all those searching for joy and engagement by asking the important questions: What motivates me and What can I do about it. Rethinking

Information Work G. Kim Dority, 2016-02-22 A state of the art guide to the world of library and information science that gives readers valuable insights into the field and practical tools to succeed in it. As the field of information science continues to evolve professional level opportunities in traditional librarianship especially in school and public libraries have stalled and contracted while at the same time information related opportunities in non library settings continue to expand. These two coinciding trends are opening up many new job opportunities for LIS professionals but the challenge lies in helping them and LIS students understand how to align their skills and mindsets with these new opportunities. The new edition of G. Kim Dority's Rethinking Information Work: A Career Guide for Librarians and Other Information Professionals gives readers helpful information on self development including learning to thrive on change using key career skills like professional networking and brand building and how to make wise professional choices. Taking readers through a planning process that starts with self examination and ends in creating an actionable career path the book presents an expansive approach that considers all LIS career possibilities and introduces readers to new opportunities. This guide is appropriate for those embarking on careers in library and information science as well as those looking to make a change providing career design strategies that can be used to build a lifetime of career opportunity. Embracing a Competitive Life Michael J. Hopkins, 2025-08-08 Embracing a Competitive Life offers an autobiographical sketch of the role that competition played both informally and formally in the life of Michael J. Hopkins for six decades. Nearly the first twenty five years of this competitive life were as a student athlete and coach in his hometown of Beloit Wisconsin. After accepting a full time position teaching high school social studies in Darlington Wisconsin in 1980 competitive actions intensified. Both on and off the field of play a sometimes arduous journey had to be endured through a series of personal and team trials and triumphs. Trials included coping with devastating losses in sports and beyond the lifelong personal battle with social anxiety and bouts of depression and being victimized by acts of violence. Triumphs included winning baseball and basketball championships learning to better serve others with humility and making strides in becoming more of a players first coach The wisdom gained from all these experiences has fueled the desire to share at least one hundred fifty life lessons related to embracing a competitive life About the Author Michael J Hopkins graduated from Beloit Catholic High School as a two sport athlete baseball and basketball and from Beloit College as a three sport athlete baseball basketball and golf with a degree in Managerial Economics He earned his master s in Humanities from California State University Dominguez Hills He was a substitute teacher and coach at Beloit Turner High School 1979 1980 and taught social studies at Darlington High School 1980 2019 His coaching experience from 1976 to 2016 includes five sports baseball basketball football golf and wrestling although mainly as a head coach for both boys and girls basketball for twenty seven years combined In 2021 he was inducted into the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame
