Word and Power Gareth W. D. Stewart, 2015-02-16 Historically the Reformed and Charismatic streams have seemed to be almost mutually exclusive In recent years this exclusivity has been being challenged by a new generation of Reformed thinkers This work aims at considering the contribution of John Wimber the late leader of the Vineyard Churches to contemporary theological reflection within the Reformed tradition Taking into account John Wimber's unique theology of the radical middle which is somewhere between Pentecostal and Evangelical this book asks whether Wimber may be a possible alternative source for the contemporary Reformed Churches as they approach ministry and mission in the twenty first century Written from a confessional Presbyterian context in Northern Ireland Word and Power places Wimber in his theological context and asks whether Wimber's view of power evangelism discipleship formation and ministry training might be a model that Reformed Churches and Presbyterians in particular could adopt for their ecclesiology today

The Good Book Guide Rodger Crooks, 2001 If you're not hurting anyone else you can do what you like I'm a Christian I was born one Jesus was a good teacher like Buddha or Mohammed I'm a good person I'll be alright God will forgive me it's his job A spiritual traveller will not go far today without being offered these pearls of wisdom Do these pearls have any value What is the Christian to make of them And what does the Bible say If we are to be consistent if we really believe what we say we believe then we have to get to grips with our faith and what it means for our lives As we look at our society's morals and its beliefs we can see that to combat its influence we need to be educated in the Bible and its doctrine This book has practical applications and helpful illustrations You will discover where the major points of Christian teaching appear in the Bible and how these themes come together to make historic biblical Christianity Prepared for the new Christian it makes invigorating reading for us all

Doc Walk Larry Dixon, 2005 Surveys of Churchgoers reveal a huge problem there is too little difference between them and people who don't go to church If our beliefs are to be taken seriously then they must be seen to have a difference in our behaviour Dixon's remarkable insights highlights how doctrine makes a difference in our walk with the Lord and the way we live
