The Deal Josh Flagg,2022-10-04 LEARN STRATAGIES FOR SUCCESSFUL DEAL MAKING Star of the hit show Million Dollar Listing Los Angeles Josh Flagg shares his secrets to mastering any negotiation in any industry and at any level Throughout his career Josh Flagg has faced off with challengers of all kinds in negotiations over the world's most expensive and sought after real estate. He has seen and put into practice what works and identified the common tricks that don't. Josh has curated ten rules that when applied to any deal will significantly increase your chance of success and make you the master negotiator your clients need you to be. Sample rules include Rule 1 Don't Sell Garbage you are what you sell Rule 2 You Only Have One Client focus on the one you're with Rule 3 Up Your Attitude be the person people want to represent them Rule 8 Play the Psychologist you are your client's best friend Rule 10 Know Your Worth you are your best advocate. If you want to be the best you have to look and act like the best. Josh learned this rule young and has applied it to every client relationship he has ever had. He began his real estate career as a student at Beverly Hills High School, swung big and hit, landing him in the perfect position to take on some of LA's largest most exclusive real estate listings and eventually a spot on Million Dollar Listing Los Angeles. Apply the lessons in the book to become the negotiator who closes million dollar deals.

Happy Holidays--Animated! William D. Crump, 2019-04-18. Speaking Yiddish to Chickens Seth Stern, 2023-03-17. Most of the roughly 140,000 Holocaust survivors who came to the United States in the first decade after World War II settled in big cities such as New York. But a few thousand chose an alternative way of life on American farms. More of these accidental farmers wound up raising chickens in southern New Jersey than anywhere else. Speaking Yiddish to Chickens is the first book to chronicle this little-known chapter in American Jewish history when these mostly Eastern European refugees, including the author's grandparents, found an unlikely refuge and gateway to new lives in the US on poultry farms. They gravitated to a section of south Jersey anchored by Vineland, a small rural city where previous waves of Jewish immigrants had built a rich network of cultural and religious institutions. This book relies on interviews with dozens of these refugee farmers and their children, as well as oral histories and archival records, to tell how they learned to farm while coping with unimaginable grief. They built small synagogues within walking distance of their farms and hosted Yiddish cultural events more frequently found on the Lower East Side than perhaps anywhere else in rural America at the time. Like refugees today, they embraced their new American identities and enriched the community where they settled, working hard in unfamiliar jobs for often meager returns. Within a decade, falling egg prices and the rise of industrial-scale agriculture in the South would drive almost all of these novice poultry farmers out.

of business many into bankruptcy Some hated every minute here others would remember their time on south Jersey farms as their best years in America They enjoyed a quieter way of life and more space for themselves and their children than in the crowded New York City apartments where so many displaced persons settled This is their remarkable story of loss renewal and perseverance in the most unexpected of settings Author Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/YiddishtoChickens>
