The Mayor of Casterbridge Thomas Hardy,2016-01-26 The Mayor of Casterbridge The Life and Death of a Man of Character by Thomas Hardy The Mayor of Casterbridge 1886 subtitled The Life and Death of a Man of Character is a novel by British author Thomas Hardy It is set in the fictional town of Casterbridge based on the town of Dorchester in Dorset The book is one of Hardy s Wessex novels all set in a fictional rural England At a country fair near Casterbridge Wessex a young hay trusser named Michael Henchard overindulges in rum laced furmity and quarrels with his wife Susan He decides to auction off his wife and baby daughter Elizabeth Jane to a sailor Mr Newson for five guineas Once sober the next day he is too late to recover his family When he realises that his wife and daughter are gone probably for good he swears not to touch liquor again for as many years as he has lived so far Eighteen years later Henchard now a successful grain merchant is the eponymous Mayor of Casterbridge known for his staunch sobriety All these years Henchard has kept the details surrounding the loss of his wife a secret The people in Casterbridge believe he is a widower although he never explicitly says that his first wife died He lies by omission instead allowing other people to believe something false Over time he finds it convenient to believe Susan probably is dead While travelling to the island of Jersey on business Henchard falls in love with a young woman named Lucette Le Sueur who nurses him back to health after an illness The book implies that Lucette Lucetta in English and Henchard have a sexual relationship and Lucetta s reputation is ruined by her association with Henchard The latter returns to Casterbridge leaving Lucetta to face the social consequences of their fling To rejoin polite society Lucetta would have to marry him but there is an obvious problem Henchard is already technically married Although Henchard never told Lucetta exactly how he lost his wife to begin with he does tell her he has a wife who is dead probably dead but who may return Besotted Lucetta develops a relationship with him despite the risk Yet just as Henchard is about to send for Lucetta Susan unexpectedly appears in Casterbridge with her daughter Elizabeth Jane who is now fully grown The pair are very poor Newson appears to have been lost at sea and without means to earn an income Susan is looking to Henchard again Susan who is not a very intelligent or sophisticated woman believed for a long time that her marriage to Newson was perfectly legitimate Only recently just before Newson s disappearance had Susan begun to question whether or not she was still legally married to Henchard
