Understanding Temperament Strategies For Creating Family Harmony:

Understanding Temperament Lyndall Shick, 1998 This book offers practical strategies on dealing with misbehaviour amongst family members so family conflict can be transformed into family peace The temperaments of children have a great impact on family life Parents must learn how to assess temperament so they can work with a child's natural tendencies The text will help parents discover how to reduce conflict between themselves and their children build good family relationships deal with misbehaviour and help relatives and teachers deal wisely with children Using Your Values to Raise Your Child to Be an Adult You Admire Harriet Heath, 1999-03 Values are the basis for every decision a parent makes How parents decide to respond to a child's behaviour directly influences what the child learns to value This book helps parents determine what they value and helps them apply these values to their family life Entertaining and enlightening examples illustrate the importance of maintaining a standard of behaviour that is consistent and passing along those values to children to help them grow into responsible adults Developing Caring Relationships Among Parents, Children, Schools, and Communities Dana McDermott, 2007-07-12 This text provides a fresh look at an important topic teachers and families working collaboratively A strong blend of research and practical application is presented Beth Nason Quick Tennessee State University I was captivated by an innovative and a gentle humanistic approach to viewing families and working with parents in parenting education Gloria Wenzel University of Scranton A synthesis of theory research and practice couched in a very readable text a provocative examination of teacher and parent relationships that holds the promise of a better future for the next generation of educators and parents This book should fan the flames of professional reflection and professional practice William McInerney University of Toledo Developing Caring Relationships Among Parents Children Schools and Communities looks at parent professional child relations very differently than other books in this area Author Dana McDermott focuses on parents and teachers as adult learners who should be growing and learning along with the children in their care Accessibly written the book synthesizes the latest theories and research on parent and adult child relations and on adult learning and development focusing on a dynamic process rather than a static role and on all the social contextual factors affecting parents teachers and children Key Features Focuses on parents and teachers as adult learners This will supplement traditional books on family involvement or parent child relations which rarely drill down to understand parents as anything more than a conduit to a child's development Emphasizes the dynamic process of parenting and teaching The author provides a useful tool or a caring decision making process for parents children and professionals to think through any issues they face so that everyone's needs are considered in any interaction Provides a theory to practice model to support parents families and teachers This book lays out a theory of what parents and teachers need to care for children and themselves and then shows how to put these theories into practice in preK 12 schools Uses narratives to demonstrate applications of theory and research The latest theories and research are woven into stories from the voices of parents teachers and children Explores research from diverse cultures The book looks at many schools around the world and from various socioeconomic backgrounds to identify their common and differentiated concerns Includes additional web resources Questionnaires workshops newsletters model development information resource material and other exemplary projects resource sites can be found in the appendices Intended Audience This supplemental text is designed for undergraduate and graduate courses such as Parents Home School Relations in Early Childhood and Elementary Education Parenting and School and Community Relations in departments of education psychology family studies health sciences and social work
