Unfinished Agendas New And Continuing Gender Challenges In Higher Education:

Unfinished Agendas Judith Glazer-Raymo, 2008 Drawing on research this volume explores issues faced by women as newly minted PhDs as faculty members as administrators and as academic leaders It describes women's struggles with the multiple demands of productivity accountability family work responsibility and the subconscious dance of identities within various cultural contexts

Critical Approaches to Women and Gender in Higher Education Pamela L. Eddy, Kelly Ward, Tehmina Khwaja, 2017-01-12 This volume provides a critical examination of the status of women and gender in higher education today Despite the increasing numbers of women in higher education gendered structures continue to hinder women's advancement in academia This book goes beyond the numbers to examine the issues facing those members of academia with non dominant gender identities The authors analyze higher education structures from a range of perspectives and offer recommendations at individual and institutional levels to encourage activism and advance equality in academia

The Emergence of Postfeminist Identities in Higher Education Eleftheria Atta, 2021-05-16 By drawing on qualitative research conducted in universities in Cyprus this book presents an account of life in the academy from a feminist perspective In doing so the texts uncover new gendered identities emerging as a result of neoliberal and postfeminist discourses in Higher Education Adopting a psychosocial lens and drawing on theories of affect and performativity this volume explains academics' responses to growing levels of stress anxiety precarity and competition in their professional environment Chapters offer rich observation of how academic staff and faculty negotiate aspects of femininity and masculinity within the academy and so highlights the performance of gendered academic subjectivities as a way in which academics deal with increasing pressures and anxiety Ultimately proposing a typography of emergent affective identities including industry academics fossilised family and wannabe academics the volume yields important insights into the current workings of Higher Education and shows the personal and professional impacts of neoliberal dynamics This volume will prove to be a useful resource for researchers and high level scholars in the fields of education sociology of education and gender studies More generally scholars and academics with an interest in the changing face of contemporary Higher Education will find this book informative

Reconstructing Policy in Higher Education Elizabeth J. Allan, Susan Iverson, Rebecca Ropers-Huilman, 2009-10-16 Written for Higher Education Masters and PhD programs this landmark textbook joins the theory of feminist post structuralism with research methods for the purpose of policy analysis in Higher Education It showcases the different methods that can be applied to a range of topics in Higher Education policy and policy development Reconstructing Policy in Higher Education highlights the work of accomplished and award winning scholars and provides an in depth examination of theoretical frameworks and concrete examples of how feminist post structuralism effectively informs research methods and can serve as a vital tool for policy makers and analysts

Women of Color in Higher Education Gaëtane Jean-Marie, Brenda Lloyd-Jones, 2011-08-18 Focuses on African American Hispanic American Native American and

Asian Pacific American women whose increased presence in senior level administrative and academic positions in higher education is transforming the political climate to be more inclusive of women of color

Accountability in Higher Education: Navigating Current Issues and Trends Singleton, Topeka Small, 2025-03-28 Accountability in higher education has become a critical issue as higher education institutions face scrutiny over student outcomes financial transparency and the value of a college degree As the cost of tuition is on the rise and student debt growing the concerns on equitability and the concerns of student engagement have left many in the public to lose trust in higher education From government regulations to accreditation standards and data driven assessment models accountability measures are evolving to ensure that higher education remains both effective and accessible As the public become more distrustful of higher education discussing the problems issues is effective in seeking change Accountability in Higher Education Navigating Current Issues and Trends explores the current trends and issues with accountability in higher education It discusses how accountability in higher education is essential and is the most impactful This book covers topics such as accountability diversity and inclusion and educational training and is a useful resource higher education professionals who seek to know more about navigating the landscape of accountability in higher education
