Whats It Worth Making Managing And Measuring Value Mobile Home Park:

What's It Worth? Making, Managing, and Measuring Value Timothy Moffit, Michelle Gigowski, 2013-04-01 This book is unique in that it weaves valuation theory through a particular asset class the manufactured housing community i e mobile home parks What s my mobile home park worth Discover the keys to making managing and measuring mobile home park value The authors have experience as educators appraisers and turnaround consultants which have offered opportunities to work regularly with students and clients in connecting the dots between valuation theory and practice In particular the authors focus on three value dimensions 1 making value 2 managing value and 3 measuring value The goal of this text to simultaneously develop a fundamental understanding of both value creation and the mobile home park asset class

Managing Mobile Home Parks Stephen G. Pappas, 1991 Southern Reporter , 1976 The Voluntary City David T. Beito, Peter Gordon, Alexander Tabarrok, 2002 Challenges the orthodoxy that insists government alone can improve community life Environmental Hazards Keith Smith, 2013 The expanded fifth edition of Environmental Hazards provides a balanced overview of all the major rapid onset events that threaten people and what they value in the twenty first century It integrates cutting edge material from the physical and social sciences to demonstrate how natural and human systems interact to place communities of all sizes and at all stages of economic development at risk It also shows how the existing losses to life and property can be reduced Part I of this established textbook defines basic concepts of hazard risk vulnerability and disaster Critical attention is given to the evolution of theory to the scale of disaster impact and to the various strategies that have been developed to minimise the impact of damaging events Part II employs a consistent chapter structure to explain how individual hazards such as earthquakes severe storms floods and droughts plus biophysical and technological processes create distinctive patterns of loss throughout the world The ways in which different societies make a positive response to these threats are placed in the context of ongoing global change In this extensively revised edition An entirely new and innovative chapter explains how modern day complexity contributes to the generation of hazard and risk Additional material supplies fresh perspectives on landslides biophysical hazards and the increasingly important role of global scale processes The increased use of boxed sections allows a greater focus on significant generic issues and offers more opportunity to examine a carefully selected range of up to date case studies Each chapter now concludes with an annotated list of key resources including further reading and relevant websites Environmental Hazards is a well written and generously illustrated introduction to all the natural social and technological events that combine to cause death and destruction across the globe It draws on the latest research findings to guide the student from common problems theories and policies to explore practical real world situations This authoritative yet accessible book captures both the complexity and dynamism of environmental hazards and has become essential reading for students of every kind seeking to understand the nature and consequences of a most important contemporary issue The SAGE Handbook of Marketing Theory Pauline

Maclaran, Michael Saren, Barbara Stern, Mark Tadajewski, 2009-12-04 Bringing together the latest debates concerning the development of marketing theory featuring original contributions from a selection of leading international authors this collection aims to give greater conceptual cohesion to the field by drawing together the many disparate perspectives and presenting them in one volume The contributors are all leading international scholars chosen to represent the intellectual diversity within marketing theory Divided into six parts the Handbook covers the historical development of marketing theory its philosophical underpinnings major theoretical debates the impact of theory on representations of the consumer the impact of theory on representations of the marketing organisation and contemporary issues in marketing theory Sales Management ,1929 Congressional Record United States.
