When The Boomers Bail A Community Economic Survival Guide:

When the Boomers Bail Mark Lautman, 2011-02 A structural shortage of qualified workers is creating a zero sum labor market that is forcing communities to steal talent from each other in order to survive and grow The cause of this impending economic disaster a baby boom generation who didn't have enough kids and an education system that has failed to properly prepare students for the new demands of today's market

Tucson David Devine, 2015-06-26 Once considered the Metropolis of Arizona Tucson is in many respects a college town with a major military base onto which a retirement community has been grafted A sprawling city of one million in the Sonoran Desert Tucson was developed during and especially for the second half of the 20th century a reality which has left it possibly unprepared for the challenges of the 21st century Tracing the remarkable history of Tucson since 1854 this book describes many aspects of the community its ceremonies and customs its early bitter battle to secure the University of Arizona its multitude of problems its noteworthy successes and its racial divides The recollections of those who have made Tucson such a memorable place are included from political leaders to celebrities to ordinary residents
