Anticipations H. G. Wells,2013-12-06 This is the extended annotated edition including the rare biographical essay by Edwin E Slosson called H G Wells A Major Prophet Of His Time Mr Wells s book is brilliant and interesting The author s social forecast claims to be descriptive of society as it is to be rather than of society as it ought to be and it is not therefore to be judged as an embodiment of his ideals but none the less the nature of his ideals is almost constantly in evidence and is responsible for the hard forbidding and sometimes repulsive character of the society he anticipates The only light with which his future is to be illumined is that of mechanical science Mechanical science is the fountain light of all his day the master light of all his seeing not only as regards the future but largely as regards the past The triumphs of democracy during the past two centuries he attributes to the advances in mechanics which have given a new industrial order utterly ignoring the fact that the democratic advance was led by the American colonies in which the new industrial order had no foothold save in a few cities and these cities the strongholds of the opponents of the democratic movement

The Paying Guest George Gissing,2009 George Gissing was a late Victorian author Between 1880 and 1903 Gissing wrote 23 novels His early works were naturalistic and later he wrote in a realistic style His works include New Grub Street Born in Exile The Odd Women In the Year of Jubilee and The Whirlpool Gissing gives the reader a look at the social elite with their snobbish attitudes and rules that govern their lives An excerpt reads At breakfast her behaviour was marked with excessive decorum To the ordinary civilities of her host and hostess she replied softly modestly in the manner of a very young and timid girl save when addressed she kept silence and sat with head inclined a virginal freshness breathed about her she ate very little and that without her usual gusto but rather as if performing a dainty ceremony Her eyes never moved in Mumford s direction

The House of Cobwebs and Other Stories George Gissing,2008-04 George Gissing was an English novelist who wrote twenty three novels between 1880 and 1903 Although his early works are naturalistic he developed into one of the the most accomplished realists of the late Victorian era Born in Wakefield Yorkshire to lower middle class parents Gissing went on to win a scholarship to Owens College the present day University of Manchester A brilliant student he excelled at university winning many coveted prizes including the Shakespeare prize in 1875 Between 1891 and 1897 his so called middle period he produced his best works which include New Grub Street Born in Exile The Odd Women In the Year of Jubilee and The Whirlpool The middle years of the decade saw his reputation reach new heights by some critics he is counted alongside George Meredith and Thomas Hardy as one of the best three novelists of his day He also enjoyed new friendships with fellow writers such as Henry James and H G Wells and came into contact with many other up and coming writers such as Joseph Conrad and Stephen Crane

Writing Place Rebecca Hutcheon,2018-02-12 Exploring a hitherto neglected field Writing Place Mimesis Subjectivity and Imagination in the Works of George Gissing is the first monograph to consider the works of George Gissing 1857 1903 in light of the spatial turn By exploring how objectivity and subjectivity interact in his work the book asks what are the risks of looking for the real in Gissing s places How does the inherent heterogeneity of Gissing s observation influence the textual recapitulation of place In addition to examining canonical texts such as The Nether World 1889 New Grub Street 1891 and The Private Papers of Henry Ryecroft 1901 the book analyses the lesser known novels short stories journalism and personal writings of Gissing in the context of modern spatial studies The book challenges previously biographical and London centric accounts of Gissing s representation of space and place by re examining seemingly innate contemporaneous geographical demarcations such as the north and the south the city suburb and country Europe and the world and re reading Gissing s places in the contexts of industrialism ruralism the city in literature and travel writing Through sustained attention to the ambiguities and contradictions rooted in the form and content of his writing the book concludes that ultimately Gissing s novels undermine spatial dichotomies by emphasising and celebrating the incongruity of seeming certainties
