Wilding Ecologies, Walking-with Glacier Karen Malone, Sean Blenkinsop, Bob Jickling, Marcus Morse, 2024-12-02 This book is an educational novella composed from diverse encounters of walking with a glacier offering the reader possibilities for wilding ecologies as a means to be immersed in more than human lives and places Wild rivulets of ecologies run through this novella shifting fragments of geologic time over a disintegrating icy and watery landscape Walking with is positioned in the novella as an embodied methodology for attuning to slowing down and paying attention While walking we weep and bear witness to the unseen In turn this novella works with flows of pedagogy theory and collective creative practice Glacier stories speaking through photographs prose poetry and provocations Collectively the gathering of experiences in this book explores what it means to be human and more than human in the context of glacial melt and shifting loss What it means to be changing our planet and all the time changing ourselves Wilding ecologies emerges in the book as a means to disrupt these anthropocentric ways of knowing and by showing up being affected we can reawaken a newfound love and enchantment

Awakening Compassion at Work Monica Worline, Jane E. Dutton, 2017-02-20 Caring Is a Competitive Advantage Suffering in the workplace can rob our colleagues and coworkers of humanity dignity and motivation and is an unrecognized and costly drain on organizational potential Marshaling evidence from two decades of field research scholars and consultants Monica Worline and Jane Dutton show that alleviating such suffering confers measurable competitive advantages in areas like innovation collaboration service quality and talent attraction and retention They outline four steps for meeting suffering with compassion and show how to build a capacity for compassion into the structures and practices of an organization because ultimately as they write Compassion is an irreplaceable dimension of excellence for any organization that wants to make the most of its human capabilities

The North Atlantic Treaty Organization and cross-cultural competence Anne Julia Hagen, 2022-07-01 This paper examines the function that cross cultural competence 3C has for NATO in a military context while focusing on two member states and their armed forces the United States and Germany Three dimensions were established to analyze 3C internally and externally dimension A dealing with 3C within the military organization dimension B focusing on 3C in a coalition environment multicultural NATO contingent for example while on a mission training exercise abroad and dimension C covering 3C and NATO missions abroad with regard to interaction with the local population When developing the research design the cultural studies based theory of hegemony constructed by Antonio Gramsci was applied to a comprehensive document analysis of 3C coursework and regulations as well as official documents in order to establish a typification for cross cultural competence As the result 3C could be categorized as Type I Ethical 3C Type II Hegemonic 3C and Type III Dominant 3C Attributes were assigned according to each type To validate the established typification qualitative surveys were conducted with NATO ACT the U S Armed Forces USCENTCOM and the German Armed Forces BMVg These interviews validated the typification and revealed a varied approach to 3C in the established dimensions It became evident that dimensions A and B indicated a prevalence of Type III which greatly impacts the work atmosphere and effectiveness for NATO ACT In contrast dimension C revealed the use of postcolonial mechanisms by NATO forces such as applying one s value systems to other cultures and having the appearance of an occupying force when 3C is not applied Type I II In general the function of each 3C type in the various dimensions could be determined In addition a comparative study of the document analysis and the qualitative surveys resulted in a canon for culture general skills Regarding the determined lack of coherence in 3C correlating with a demonstrably negative impact on effectiveness and efficiency as well as interoperability a NATO standard in the form of a standardization agreement STANAG was suggested based on the aforementioned findings with a focus on empathy cross cultural awareness communication skills including active listening flexibility and adaptability and interest Moreover tolerance of ambiguity and teachability patience observation skills and perspective taking could be considered significant Suspending judgment and respect are also relevant skills here At the same time the document analysis also revealed a lack of coherency and consistency in 3C education and interorganizational alignment In particular the documents examined for the U S Forces indicated divergent approaches Furthermore the interview analysis disclosed a large discrepancy in part between doctrine and actual implementation with regard to the NATO Forces

Transcultural Care - E-BOOK Irena Papadopoulos,2025-05-07 Cultural competence is not just a theoretical concept but a practical necessity Evidence has established that effective efficient and compassionate care in an increasingly diverse world cannot be achieved unless the health workforce is culturally competent Transcultural Care by Irena Papadopoulos a leading expert in transcultural health and nursing offers a comprehensive guide to understanding and implementing cultural competence in healthcare settings. This book and its accompanying videos are designed to help a wide range of students and professionals navigate the complexities of cultural diversity in patient care. Through a systematic exploration of key concepts such as communication, compassion, and ethical practice, the author introduces the readers to essential cultural competence models, including her own established Papadopoulos, Tilki, and Taylor model. The content also delves into the emerging roles of AI and robotics in healthcare, providing a forward-thinking perspective on how technology intersects with cultural competence. The book also introduces the post-human theory, exploring its relevance to cultural and compassionate competence in health care.

Transcultural Care is not just a textbook but a practical resource with case studies, exercises, and interesting videos that allow self-paced learning. Whether you are a student, a qualified healthcare professional looking to enhance your skills, or an educator preparing the next generation of culturally competent and compassionate caregivers, this book is an invaluable addition to your library. It explores fundamental principles of cultural competence and their application in healthcare, written by a leading authority. It introduces the post-human theory, accompanied by engaging videos to break down complex topics into digestible segments. It includes activities, sections, and exercises designed to reinforce learning. The structured layout with Learning Objectives and Key Points is for easy reference. It includes chapters on the impact of COVID-19 and the role of AI and robotics in culturally competent care.

Narrative Therapies with Children and Adolescents Craig Smith, David Nylund, 2000-03-15

Showcasing approaches as creative and playful as young clients themselves, the book presents therapy as a dialogue of discovery. Through transcripts and compelling case examples, contributors illuminate how drama, art, play, and humor can be used effectively to engage with children of different ages and to honor their idiosyncratic language, knowledge, and perspective.

Self-Compassion for Parents Susan M. Pollak, 2019-07-30

I yelled at the kids again and feel so ashamed. I barely have time to shower, let alone exercise. No wonder I'm so out of shape. I'm just not the dad I hoped I would be. Parenting is hard. That's why self-compassion is so important. In this empathic resource, mindfulness expert and psychologist Susan M. Pollak helps you let go of constant self-judgment and treat yourself with the same kindness and caring you strive to offer your kids. Simple yet powerful guided meditation techniques, most under three minutes long, are easy to practice while doing the dishes, driving to work, or soothing a fussy baby. Learn to respond to your own imperfections like a supportive friend, not a harsh critic. You will find yourself happier and more energized and will discover new reserves of patience and appreciation for your kids.
