A Giant Tree has Fallen Seifudein Adem, Jideofor Adibe, 2016-09-01

This book memorialising the life and work of Ali Alamin Mazrui comprises more than 130 tributes written by people ranging from heads of state to journalists Presented here are those tributes for which copyright permissions were received from among the hundreds that appeared online and print In preparing this book it was made very clear that unlike other books of tributes to great men and women there would be no segmentation of the sections based on writers and speakers positions in life Instead it was decided that the tributes be presented in alphabetical order based on writers and speakers last names The decision hinged on the fact that Mazrui would not have apposed any segmentation of people by class race ethnicity and gender etc Nonetheless out of great respect for Mazrui's immediate family members their tributes are presented first followed by those from his global family members Also included at the beginning of the book are three chapters that comprise an introductory essay a brief biography of Mazrui and an essay on metaphorical linguistic analysis of the tributes that follow The book also has a preface by the coeditors and a forward by Salim Ahmed Salim the former Prime Minister of the United Republic of Tanzania and Secretary General of the Organisation of African Unity OAU now known as the Africa Union Dr Salim who served as the Secretary General of the OAU from 1989 to 2001 was Mazrui's friend and contemporary Mazrui once described Salim as Mr Africa and the first real postcolonial Secretary General of the OAU
