I-III Charles Phineas Sherman, 1917 Shaping Church Law Around the Year 1000 Greta Austin, 2017-05-15 This study of Burchard's Decretum a popular book of Catholic canon law compiled just after the year 1000 sheds new light on the development of law and theology long before the Gregorian Reform normally considered as a watershed in the history of the Latin Church Practical episcopal concerns and an appreciation of new scholarly methods led Burchard to be dissatisfied with the quality of contemporary jurisprudence and particularly with the teaching texts available to local bishops Drawing upon new manuscript discoveries the author shows how Burchard tried to create a new text that would address these problems He carefully selected and compiled canons from earlier collections and then went on to tamper systematically with the texts he had chosen By doing so he created a book of church law that appeared to be based on indisputable authority that was internally consistent and that was easy to apply through logical extrapolation to new cases The present study thus provides a window into the development of legal and theological reasoning in the medieval West and suggests that thanks to the work of ambitious bishops the flowering of law and theology began far earlier and for different reasons than scholars have heretofore supposed The Perfume Companion Sarah McCartney, Samantha Scriven, 2021-11-09 The Perfume Companion is a beautifully illustrated compendium of almost 500 recommended scents It organizes and explores fragrances in a bid to guide readers toward new favourites Filled with vibrant descriptions and specially commissioned detailed illustrations that bring the fragrances and their beautiful bottles to life it is the ideal introduction to the complex world of scent Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office United States.
