Utopian Landscapes Asia Through The Looking Glass:

Utopian Landscapes Blair Bourassa, 2011-04-08 Utopian Landscapes Asia through the Looking Glass is Blair Bourassa's intriguing first volume of the Roadwork series dealing with his travels in Burma India Vietnam Cambodia Laos Indonesia Singapore Nepal and Tibet Highlights of the writing include an interview with the last king of Burma a meeting with the world leader of the Hare Krishna movement an encounter with a man who sold his own children to finance his travels a fight with motorcycle thieves and a visit to Tibet on the surreal fortieth anniversary gala celebration of its liberation by China The author lived in Asia for five years and can speak and read several of the local languages The accounts of his travels are supplemented with well researched discussion about the culture history and eccentricities of each country he visits including appendices on Buddhist and Hindu iconography the Burmese struggle against totalitarianism and the idea of Tibetan independence Similar in style to the Asian travel classics The Great Railway Bazaar and Video Night in Kathmandu this book would appeal to anyone planning a tour of Asia who is interested in learning about the political and historical facts while still being entertained by an engaging travelogue narrative

Imaging Migration in Post-War Britain Beccy

Kennedy-Schtyk, 2022-04-21 This book examines the artistic practices of a range of British based artists of East Asian Chinese Japanese Korean and Taiwanese heritage to consider the social political and cultural effects of migration or diaspora on their creative production Beccy Kennedy Schtyk demonstrates three themes the multiplicity and expansive contemporaneity of these artists visual oeuvres the physical impact or interpretation of migratory circumstances on their artistic practices and the necessity to continue to evolve ways of thinking about migration race and border crossings in the current political climate of the 21st century The book will be of interest to scholars studying art history Asian studies British studies migration and diaspora studies and cultural studies

Of Peninsulas and Archipelagos Phrae Chittiphalangsri, Vicente L. Rafael, 2023-07-18 Comprising 11 countries and hundreds of languages from one of the most culturally diverse regions in the world the chapters in this collection explore a wide range of translation issues The subject of this volume is set in the contrasted landscapes of mainland peninsulas and maritime archipelagos in Southeast Asia which whilst remaining a largely minor area in Asian studies harbors a wealth of textual heritage that opens to inquiries and new readings From the post Angkor Cambodia the post colonial Vientiane to the ultra modern Singapore metropolis translation figures problematically in the modernization of indigenous literatures criss crossing chronologically and spatially through different literary landscapes The peninsular geobody gives rise to the politics of singularity as seen in the case of the predominant monolingual culture in Thailand whereas the archipelagic geography such as the thousand islands of Indonesia allows for peculiar types of communication Translation can also be metaphorized poetically to configure the transference in different scenarios such as the cases of self translation in Philippine protest poetry and untranslatability in Vietnamese diasporic writings The collection also includes intra regional comparative views on historical and religious terms This book will appeal to scholars and postgraduate students of
