Wait Time Memoir Cancer Writing:

Wait Time Kenneth Sherman, 2015-12-16 When poet and essayist Kenneth Sherman was diagnosed with cancer he began keeping a notebook of observations that blossomed into this powerful memoir With incisive and evocative language Sherman presents a clear eyed view of what the cancer patient feels and thinks His narrative voice is personal but not confessional practical but not cold thoughtful and searching but not self pitying or self absorbed The author's wait time for surgery on a malignant tumour was exceptionally long and riddled with bureaucratic bumbling thus he asks our health care providers and administrators if our system cannot be made efficient and more humane While he is honest about what is good and bad in our system he is not stridently political or given to directing blame His narrative is interwoven with engaging ruminations on the meaning of illness in society and is peppered with references to other writers thoughts on the subject A widely published poet Sherman helps the reader understand the deep connection between disease and creativity the ways in which we write out of our suffering Wait Time will be of special interest to anyone facing a serious illness as well as to health care providers social workers and psychologists working in the field Its thoughtful observations on health life priorities time and mortality will make it of interest to all readers

Reading and Writing Cancer Susan Gubar, 2016-05-17 An important addition to the literature of cancer by an award winning scholar and memoirist Elaborating upon her Living with Cancer column in the New York Times Susan Gubar helps patients caregivers and the specialists who seek to serve them In a book both enlightening and practical she describes how the activities of reading and writing can right some of cancer's wrongs To stimulate the writing process she proposes specific exercises prompts and models In discussions of the diary of Fanny Burney the stories of Leo Tolstoy and Alice Munro numerous memoirs novels paintings photographs and blogs Gubar shows how readers can learn from art that deepens our comprehension of what it means to live or die with the disease From a writer whose own memoir Memoir of a Debulked Woman Enduring Ovarian Cancer was described by the New York Times Book Review as moving and instructive and incredibly brave this volume opens a path to healing

The Role of Conflict on the Individual and Society Theresa MacNeil-Kelly, 2020-07-08 The Role of Conflict on Society and the Individual uses a variety of interdisciplinary approaches to explore how humans both observe and confront our differences with one another and with the world around us Contributors examine conflict in various contexts including conflict within families interracial relationships sports society and ourselves to determine how conflict manifests itself in our everyday lives

Two-Timed: an Adolescent Cancer Memoir Danielle DuChateau, 2021-01-20 The journals are those of a girl I once knew who had cancer and wrote about her experiences She wanted to share her story in a way that would have helped her in a book about having cancer as a teen written by a teen who experienced it She wasn't lost in battle but she's been gone a long time and I haven't been able to forget her or let her go The story seems unfamiliar and yet I know it by heart It feels like yesterday but seems like a lifetime ago It's the story I never wrote because it was already written and at the heart of it is my journey with cancer a muse a curse and a blessing I've read the book before but I never closed the first chapter a book of journals written by a girl who had cancer Cancer is a part of my story and being a survivor is part of my identity but it is not my entire identity as I felt it was when I was younger At the end of my second treatment I decided I was going to write my story and publish it I even thought of the perfect title for my book Two Timed An Adolescent Cancer Memoir I thought of it because I felt two timed by my own body whose very defense system had attacked itself and it had happened to me twice But I didn't write the story The years went by and I decided I could not very well write an adolescent memoir when I was well into my twenties but I still had my journals all the journals Several more years elapsed until now twenty three years after the journey began I am finally writing the story Writing & Selling Your Memoir Paula Balzer,2011-06-13 There's more to writing a memoir than just writing your life story A memoir isn't one long diary entry Rather it's a well crafted story about a crucial often exceptionally difficult time in someone's life Writing Selling Your Memoir talks readers through the process of telling their most personal stories in a compelling relatable and readable manner Unlike other books dedicated to the art and craft of writing memoir it teaches readers how to approach the genre with love respect and know how without sentimentalizing it Drawing on her experience working with New York Times best selling memoirists literary agent Paula Balzer carefully explores the genre and provides readers with step by step instruction on how to Identify strong opening and closing points Find and develop a strong central hook that readers can relate to Structure a memoir to maximize readability Use dialogue and pacing to enhance intimacy Approach honesty and truthfulness Build a successful author platform around their memoir Get an agent's attention Get published Full of tips techniques detailed exercises and examples from best selling memoirs as well as sidebars from well known memoir authors Writing Selling Your Memoir teaches you how to approach an often tricky genre and tell your story without sentimentalizing it

The Disfigured Face in American Literature, Film, and Television Cornelia Klecker,Gudrun M. Grabher,2021-11-29 The face being prominent and visible is the foremost marker of a person's identity as well as their major tool of communication Facial disfigurements congenital or acquired not only erase these significant capacities but since ancient times they have been conjured up as outrageous and terrifying often connoting evil or criminality in their associations a dark secret being suggested behind the mask the disfigurement indicating punishment for sin Complemented by an original poem by Kenneth Sherman and a plastic surgeon's perspective on facial disfigurement this book investigates the exploitation of these and further stereotypical tropes by literary authors filmmakers and showrunners considering also the ways in which film television and the publishing industry have more recently tried to overcome negative codifications of facial disfigurement in the search for an authentic self behind the veil of facial disfigurement An exploration of fictional representations of the disfigured face this book will appeal to scholars of sociology cultural and media studies American studies and literary studies with interests in representations of disfigurement and the Other Cancer, I'll Give You One Year Jennifer Spiegel,2020-01-21 Cancer I'll Give You One Year A Non Informative Guide To Breast Cancer A

Writer's Memoir In Almost Real Time is not about eating kale The book is 100 percent narrative nonfiction and 0 percent self help It was actually written for the author's children in case she died This sounds morbid but maybe pointed and candid are better words Embracing candor as an aesthetic this real time story hits upon the sacred the profane a trip to Epcot a colonoscopy her kids responses to everything and O J Simpson's parole hearing Writing centric voice driven and conscious of a death sentence no diets or exercises are offered but the author may give horrible parenting advice It's undoubtedly funny but also a meditation on meaning

Communication of Innovations Arvind Singhal, James W Dearing, 2006-07-05 This collection of 10 original essays honors the intellectual legacy of Professor Everett M Rogers a pioneering and distinguished teacher scholar of diffusion of innovations communication networks and social change Well known colleagues and contemporaries write on topics that not only piqued Rogers curiosity but which are areas where he made seminal and lasting contributions diffusion of innovations communication networks in diffusion innovation generation and technology transfer social cognitive and social diffusion theories social marketing communication and social change in non Western contexts strategic communication campaigns and the entertainment education communication strategy in health promotion The concluding chapter documents Rogers life journey from his modest farm boy beginnings in Iowa through his distinguished academic career to his final return to the farm Overall this book demonstrates the diversity of Rogers contributions to the fields of communication science marketing organizational change sociology and social psychology and will serve as a starting point for future scholarship and practice

Faces in the Crowd Franklin Bialystok, 2022-06-29 Starting with the first steps on Canadian soil in the eighteenth century to the present day Faces in the Crowd introduces the reader to the people and personalities who made up the Canadian Jewish experience from the Jewish roots of the NHL's Ross trophy to Leonard Cohen and all the rabbis artists writers and politicians in between Drawing on a lifetime of wisdom and experience at the heart of the Canadian Jewish community Franklin Bialystok adds new research unique insights and best of all memorable stories to the history of the Jews in Canada

Scratching River Michelle Porter, 2022-04-15 Scratching River braids the voices of mother brother sister ancestor and river to create a story about environmental personal and collective healing This memoir revolves around a search for home for the author's older brother who is both autistic and schizophrenic and an unexpected emotional journey that led to acceptance understanding and ultimately reconciliation Michelle Porter brings together the oral history of a Métis ancestor studies of river morphology and news clippings about abuse her older brother endured at a rural Alberta group home to tell a tale about love survival and hope This book is a voice in your ear urging you to explore your own braided histories and relationships
