Walking on a Rolling Deck Kathleen Berken, 2020-07-07 In 1999 Kathy Berken left Green Bay Wisconsin for her new home as a live in assistant in a L Arche community in Clinton Iowa Although the life she left was not necessarily one of balmy beaches she could never have predicted the storms that lay ahead She found that her new home was not an ark of refuge However she also found that God was with her and the members of her house shaping and guiding them The story of her journey is told here with verve and honesty It is a story of breast cancer of forging relationships of violence and the struggle to forgive It is the story of a heart turned to God and changed by love of others It is ultimately the story of all of our Christian lives no matter where or with whom we live Jesus is truly living in the hearts of those who have been pushed aside He is not just in gentle and prayerful liturgies but also in the mess of dailiness and of difficult relationships The crucified Jesus leads to crucified people The resurrection of Jesus leads us to discover the seeds of resurrection in all the pain of our world and in all the hidden pain in each of us It leads us to celebration and to laughter It is a place of healing for us all Yes you have well described life in L Arche home To learn more about Kathy Berken and L Arche Books please visit the website www.faithjourneyhope.com Kathleen Berken is house coordinator for one of three homes in L Arche community in Clinton Iowa where she lives with five men with developmental disabilities She was a high school and college math teacher prior to joining the staff of The Compass the newspaper of the Catholic Diocese of Green Bay Berken joined the L Arche community in 1999 Her roles of mother teacher caregiver and friend all give dimension to her role as L Arche assistant

An Anthology of Saints William J. Bausch, 2011-10 Saints are a significant part of our heritage revered figures of our Christian culture according to Father Bill Bausch Long before television the cult of saints dominated the popular imagination they were and are our Christian celebrities He says that while modern celebrities point to and celebrate themselves the saints point to or wrestle with something more beyond appearances some one more They are mirrors to another reality Whatever their history at least once in their lives saints heroically leap beyond their pride self absorption and even the instincts of self preservation into a fullness of sacrifice generosity and love that takes our breath

Theology, Disability, and Spiritual Transformation Michael Hryniuk, 2010 In this study Michael Hryniuk develops a full phenomenological psychological and theological account of spiritual transformation in the context of L Arche a federation of Christian communities that welcome persons with learning disabilities The book begins with a critical examination of current perspectives on spiritual transformation in theology and Christian spirituality and constructs a new foundational formulation of transformation as a shift in consciousness identity and behavior Through extensive analysis of the narratives of the caregiver assistants who share life with those who are disabled this case study reveals an alternative vision of the three fold way that unfolds through a series of profound awakenings in relationships of mutual care and presence an awakening to the capacity to love to bear inner anguish and darkness and to experience radical human and divine acceptance The book examines the psychological dimensions of spiritual transformation through the lens of contemporary affect theory and explores how care givers experience a profound healing of shame in their felt sense of identity and self worth
