What Falls Apart Live Theatre:

What Falls Apart Torben Betts, 2015-04-24 May 2015 The most important General Election for a generation All is not well for Tom Savage an ex Labour minister parachuted into a safe North East constituency trying to win hearts and minds as well as an Election Wrestling with a heady cocktail of mid life crisis growing dependency on alcohol and the consequences of his Government's policies in Iraq Tom finds himself in a Tyneside hotel bar at midnight with a newly teetotal barman and a criminally attractive woman What could possibly go wrong Plenty

Caroline's Kitchen Torben Betts, 2018-06-06 Monogamy means sharing your life with one person but what if you shared your kitchen with 5 6 million Caroline Mortimer the nation's favourite TV cook has it all a sparkling career a big house in Highgate a golf loving husband smart kids and the best kitchen money can buy But beneath the immaculate furnishings studio lighting and away from the glare of the ever present cameras Caroline must face the looming collision of living a private life in the public eye What happens when the cameras turn off and the truth comes out Caroline's Kitchen serves up deft dialogue in absurd situations Betts paints a wonderfully lurid picture of the middle classes juxtaposed with the fragility of those who serve them The Stage First performed as Monogamy at Malvern Theatre starring Janie Dee it then embarked on a national tour It is a searing sharp state of the nation comedy from one of the UK's most exciting playwrights Torben Betts

The Divided Laing Patrick Marmion, 2017-07-05 London 1970 Experimental psychiatrist R D Laing is facing eviction from his pioneering asylum in the East End's Kingsley Hall Local residents are up in arms and to make matters worse Ronnie's revolutionary colleague David Cooper is flipping out on the roof With his personal life going down the pan and his mental state heading the same way Ronnie takes an acid trip to the future His mission is to save his therapeutic collective The Philadelphia Association and secure his professional legacy Will it be a one way ticket to madness or can breakdown sometimes mean breakthrough

The Damned United David Peace, 2016-05-13 When Don Revie took over this club Leeds were a rugby league town No interest in football Gates under 10 000 We'd never won a thing He built one of the great clubs of English football one of the great teams of English football from scratch on barren ground from nothing more than spirit and fight and nous which are the exact same qualities you used at Derby And out of jealousy you never tried to understand that Never tried to make the most of that Sad 1974 Brian Clough the enfant terrible of British football tries to redeem his managerial career and reputation by winning the European Cup with his new team Leeds United The team he has openly despised for years the team he hates and that hates him Don Revie's Leeds A West Yorkshire Playhouse and Red Ladder Theatre Company co production adapted from David Peace's ingenious and much lauded novel which was subsequently made into a film starring Michael Sheen The Damned United takes you inside the tortured mind of a genius slamming up against his limits and brings to life the beauty and brutality of football the working man's ballet Anders Lustgarten's stage adaptation of David Peace's novel received its world premiere at the West Yorkshire Playhouse on 3 March 2016

Combustion Asif Khan, 2017-06-16 Bradford in the month of Ramadan Shaz a local garage mechanic is trying to keep his business going despite the terrible scandal of Asian men involved in grooming young girls for sex in the area A protest march through the city is planned and Samina Shaz's sister wants to make a speech at a counter demonstration for Peace Shaz just wants a quiet life so that his prospective in laws will let him marry their beautiful daughter but as the city gets swept up in the protest his world gets turned upside down Asif Khan's debut play is a fabulously comic take on the combustion surrounding young British Muslim lives

Live Theatre Max Roberts, 2003 Spanning three generations Live Theatre is a celebration of the finest playwrights from the North East In The Filleting Machine Tom Hadaway a fishing family's way of life faces extinction in You Are My Heart's Delight C P Taylor the lights are switched out in the house of a gamekeeper and his sister who have resisted change for years Shooting the Legend Alan Plater is a comedy of cultural errors in which two women prepare to make a documentary about the socially deprived of Gateshead in Wittgenstein on Tyne Lee Hall Wittgenstein is caught red handed when working as a hospital porter on Tyneside Laughter When We're Dead Sean O'Brien is a modern revenge tragedy set around the politics of old versus new labour while Cold Calling Julia Darling is a dark comedy about a door to door salesman

Critical Live Art Dominic Johnson, 2016-04-29 Live Art is a contested category not least because of the historical disciplinary and institutional ambiguities that the term often tends to conceal Live Art can be usefully defined as a peculiarly British variation on particular legacies of cultural experimentation a historically and culturally contingent translation of categories including body art performance art time based art and endurance art The recent social and cultural history of the UK has involved specific factors that have crucially influenced the development of Live Art since the late 1970s These have included issues in national cultural politics relating to sexuality gender disability technology and cultural policy In the past decade there has been a proliferation of festivals of Live Art in the UK and growing support for Live Art in major venues Nevertheless while specific artists have been afforded critical essays and monographs there is a relative absence of scholarly work on Live Art as a historically and culturally specific mode of artistic production Through essays by leading scholars and critical interviews with influential artists in the sector Critical Live Art addresses the historical and cultural specificity of contemporary experimental performance and explores the diversity of practices that are carried out programmed read or taught as Live Art This book is based on a special issue of Contemporary Theatre Review

Where Do We Live and Other Plays Christopher Shinn, 2005-07-01 This anthology marks the emergence of one of the finest and most innovative new artists writing for the theater today The secret of Shinn's success is in the way he exploits the dramatic gap between what is said and that which is left unsaid writing like this is rare said the London Independent Where Do We Live the title play was written shortly after 9/11 and though never referenced it still haunts this chronicle of the struggles of several aspiring and gifted young New Yorkers on the Lower East Side Like all his work it is a deeply affecting story of how we define our lives and our place in the world The Coming World Shinn certainly looks like a shining prospect for the future Daily Telegraph Four Nothing is simple emotionally The play keeps delivering small shocks and aches that end in a standoff or maybe in that pause between despair resignation and a twinge of hope

Haunting Margo Jefferson The New York Times Other People Shinn writes with graceful compassion about people trapped inside their own skins unable to make sense of their lives The Guardian What Didn't Happen is about the distance between people and the ways in which even friends spouses and lovers are ultimately unknowable to one another a playwright to cherish The New York Times Christopher Shinn's plays have been produced at Playwrights Horizons Manhattan Theatre Club the Vineyard Theatre in New York and often at London's Royal Court Theatre Where Do We Live received a 2003 Olivier Award nomination for most promising playwright His next play On the Mountain premieres in New York City early in 2005
