

Beth's Convenience Store: A Business Narrative Report

*By Melody Charlotte
December 1*

Beth's convenience store has been one of Riverside, California's most trusted businesses. It is especially loved by Filipinos in the neighborhood simply because the owner is Filipino and it gives off a nostalgic feeling. It started as a simple sari-sari store or a shop that offers a variety of goods and services in 1964. Over time, it has proved its strength despite all the economic challenges it has faced.

Because the store's regular customers are Filipino, most of the goods sold are Filipino, too. In 1964, the store began by selling liquor and cigarettes known to the Filipino people. Since it had tables and chairs, it was every Filipino's destination on a Friday and Saturday. It enabled interactions among Filipinos that led to a more strengthened community in Riverside. Because of the community's ties with people of other ethnicities, Beth's convenience stores also became a social hub for Latinos and Mexicans—ethnicities that had a common history of Spanish colonization. Later on, the store developed into selling other retail goods as well. Especially during economic crises in the succeeding years since its establishment, the store provided socioeconomically challenged colored communities with options to buy retail or in utang na loob terms, tingi.

In the late 1980's to early 1990's, the store ventured into a buy-and-sell business, which functioned more or less similarly to a pawnshop. Customers, especially those who needed cash and had items to sell, were saved by Beth. The store bought these items at a reasonable price and gave the customer two months to get it back at 2% interest or have the store sell it to
