Furcon,1972 This report presents major results and practical implications of two projects aimed at the identification and validation of more effective written tests for police officer selection. The projects conducted in 1966-68 and 1969-71 worked with a diversified group of tests in a battery consisting of tests of motivation, work interests, visual perception, interpersonal aptitudes, temperament, and pressure tolerance, thus assessing the importance of a wide range of qualifications in police officer selection. The predictive power of the tests was established by comparing the test scores of experienced police officers with their performance on eight different measures of job success. This comparison indicated relationships between performance on written tests and on the street effectiveness. The projects also explored procedures of making testing programs more equitable to minority group members while attempting to upgrade selection standards. Contents of the report are organized in a question-answer format and include sample questions and sales sources for the various tests. Energy Research Abstracts, 1986 INIS Atomindex, 1983 Comprehensive Handbook of Psychological Assessment: Industrial and organizational assessment Michel Hersen, 2004. In one volume, the leading researchers in industrial/organizational assessment interpret the range of issues related to industrial/organizational tests, including test development and psychometrics, clinical applications, ethical and legal concerns, use with diverse populations, computerization, and the latest research. Clinicians and researchers who use these instruments will find this volume invaluable as it contains the most comprehensive and up-to-date information available on this important aspect of practice. Industrial/organizational Psychology Paul E. Levy, 2006. Personal, direct, and applied in its approach, Levy's Industrial Organizational Psychology, Second Edition, is truly for both students and organizations of the 21st century. It focuses on the psychology of the workforce, employee health and well-being, organizational behavior, motivation, human resources, and various dynamics of work interaction.
