What Do You Think about Brand Communities? Bastian Storch, 2008-09 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2007 in the subject Communications Public Relations Advertising Marketing Social Media grade 1 1 course Bachelor of Advertising and Marketing 85 entries in the bibliography language English abstract The brand community is a concept that sheds a new light on the relationships between consumers and a specific brand they are no longer considered as dyadic relationships between a brand and an isolated consumer Fournier 1998 but rather as relationships overlapping associations and interactions among consumers within a specific group Gruen et al 2000 Brand communities gained in importance in recent years for companies with a high situated brand and as it is still an issue to define the special relationship and the concept itself this dissertation will help to understand the meaning of a brand community and discuss the perceptions of consumers towards brand communities in context with mutual benefits An understanding of the special relationship between company and community members is being outlined The brand community presents a special interest both for marketing researchers and brand managers because it gives new theoretical perspectives on key concepts and considerable implications for marketing strategies Abdelmajid Sitz 2004 Brand communities became a crucial factor regarding to the marketing planning process and in terms of value of a brand They have become one of the most encouraging developments in relationship marketing in recent years von Loewenfeld 2004 Therefore it is important to outline and examine the brand community concept and put it in context with the theory of relationship marketing brand management buyer behaviour and customer loyalty programmes These four elements are the factors which play the crucial role on which basis the brand community concept is being established To make this work the perceptions of the existing as well as the potential customers needs to be explored

Marketing Strategy Mark E. Hill, 2012-04-27 Marketing Strategy The Thinking Involved is an innovative text that holds that marketing thinking leads to effective marketing strategy It goes beyond simply introducing students to concepts and theories in the field by providing them with tools and methods to develop marketing thinking and questioning skills that will help them apply the concepts to real life marketing strategy issues As the chapters progress the questions develop towards higher levels and more specialized inquiry helping students acquire the skills needed in the practice of marketing The book contains a wealth of pedagogy to support this active learning approach Social Media for Progressive Public Relations Outi Niininen, 2022-11-10 This edited book presents a comprehensive research led coverage of the progressive ways public relations PR and social media is utilised today It offers innovative research approaches to explore PR and social media initiatives and in so doing provides guidance on how to direct PR communication across the complex canvas of social media where some of the communication can be highly emotional varying from overt expressions of loyalty to brandjacking Progressive organisations are carefully engaging with their audiences in multiple social media channels with organisational goals including commercial success sustainability or employee morale The analytics offered by social media channels help organisations to learn about their audiences as well as design highly personalised content This book extends our understanding of the ways PR and social media can be utilised for communication that resonates with target audiences in varying context Through the academic research presented readers can also learn innovative ways to investigate and improve their own PR and social media practice The book s main themes include the power of engagement progressive management use of social media channels business influence social influencing for non profit causes and political impacts of targeted social media communications Social Media for Progressive Public Relations is for scholars researchers and students of PR and communications Chapters 12 13 and 14 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

What do you think about Brand Communities? Bastian Storch, 2008-09-26 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2007 in the subject Communications Public Relations Advertising Marketing Social Media grade 1 1 course Bachelor of Advertising and Marketing language English abstract The brand community is a concept that sheds a new light on the relationships between consumers and a specific brand they are no longer considered as dyadic relationships between a brand and an isolated consumer Fournier 1998 but rather as relationships overlapping associations and interactions among consumers within a specific group Gruen et al 2000 Brand communities gained in importance in recent years for companies with a high situated brand and as it is still an issue to define the special relationship and the concept itself this dissertation will help to understand the meaning of a brand community and discuss the perceptions of consumers towards brand communities in context with mutual benefits An understanding of the special relationship between company and community members is being outlined The brand community presents a special interest both for marketing researchers and brand managers because it gives new theoretical perspectives on key concepts and considerable implications for marketing strategies Abdelmajid Sitz 2004 Brand communities became a crucial factor regarding to the marketing planning process and in terms of value of a brand They have become one of the most encouraging developments in relationship marketing in recent years von Loewenfeld 2004 Therefore it is important to outline and examine the brand community concept and put it in context with the theory of relationship marketing brand management buyer behaviour and customer loyalty programmes These four elements are the factors which play the crucial role on which basis the brand community concept is being established To make this work the perceptions of the existing as well as the potential customers needs to be explored The author has investigated the perceptions concerns and opinions of 200 consumers between 18 and 30 throughout different social groups and geographical locations This gives an overview about the awareness and actual use of brand communities among the target audiences Consumer Culture, Branding and Identity in the New Russia Graham Roberts, 2016-04-14 As shopping has been transformed from a chore into a major source of hedonistic pleasure a specifically Russian consumer culture has begun to emerge that is unlike any other This book examines the many different facets of consumption in today s Russia including retailing advertising and social networking Throughout emphasis is placed on the inherently visual not to say spectacular nature both of consumption generally and of Russian consumer culture in particular Particular attention is paid to the ways in which brands both Russian and foreign construct categories of identity in order to claim legitimacy for themselves What emerges is a fascinating picture of how consumer culture is being reinvented in Russia today in a society which has one nostalgic eye turned towards the past and the other utopian eye set firmly on the future Borrowing concepts from both marketing and cultural studies the approach throughout is interdisciplinary and will be of considerable interest to researchers students and practitioners wishing to gain invaluable insights into one of the most lucrative and exciting of today s emerging markets
