Most of us fall in the middle between these two extremes we appreciate say a good cup of coffee a power tool a new set of towels or a juicy steak but don't think the answer to the riddle of existence is to be found in any of these We appreciate them without thinking them sufficient What's missing from them What's missing is this a sense that they can give meaning to life The Aesthetic Sense of Life proposes that meaning is found not in these particulars but in consciousness of the patterns they form The feel of our towels or the taste of our coffee is just for us Others have their own sensations so they don't need ours What we can share with other people and thus use to re-establish the bonds of human warmth are the patterns made by these particulars something others can appreciate as well Awareness of these patterns constitutes the aesthetic sense of life which gives richness and meaning to the everyday Current History, 1929 Ellingwood's Therapist, 1918
