What Are Mothers For

Fanny Vincent Steele HATCHARD

What Are Mothers For:

What Are Children For? Anastasia Berg, Rachel Wiseman, 2024-08-15 Having children is one of the biggest decisions you'll make in your life. Increasingly, we aren't making it at all. A NEW STATESMAN BEST BOOK OF 2024. A book for lovers of sound reasoning. THE NEW YORKER Across the developed world, fewer and fewer people are becoming parents. We seek self-fulfilment; we want women to find meaning and self-worth outside the household; we wish to protect the planet from the ravages of climate change; we do what we can to protect others from senseless suffering. On the face of it, none of these goals are served by having children. Amid such pressures, how on earth can we make the choice to do so? Anastasia Berg and Rachel Wiseman offer a way out of this inertia and indecision by reminding us that in making the individual decision whether to have children, we confront a profound philosophical question: for all its pains and failures, is human life worth living? What Are Children For is a stirring call to overcome fear and dread and embrace the value of human existence and a human future.

The 2012 Canterbury Preacher's Companion Michael Counsell, 2011-05-31 An annual favourite, the CANTERBURY PREACHER'S COMPANION provides a total of 150 complete sermons for the coming year, with hymn suggestions. For each Sunday of the year, there are two sermons based on the Principal and Second Service lectionaries, plus a section of sermons for special occasions: Mothering Sunday, Harvest, baptism, marriage, funerals, and for all major saints' days. In addition, it offers at a glance summaries of the Bible readings, seasonal introductions, a full colour liturgical calendar, and hymn suggestions throughout the year. The sermons are complete and ready to use, or can be used as a base for local adaptation. A boon for hard-pressed clergy and preachers everywhere. Mothers of Scripture [readings] for mothers' meetings Fanny Vincent Steele HATCHARD, 1875. The Complete Buddhism for Mothers Sarah Napthali, 2011.
