What Effective Schools Do Re Envisioning The Correlates:

What Effective Schools Do Lawrence W. Lezotte, Kathleen McKee Snyder, 2011 What Effective Schools Do is designed as guide to assist educators with activities for implementing a continuous school improvement system through application of the seven correlates of effective schools 1 High expectations for success 2 Strong instructional leadership 3 A clear and focused mission 4 Opportunity to learn time on task 5 Frequent monitoring of student progress 6 Safe and orderly environment 7 Positive home school relations The ten chapters provide a comprehensive description of practices that enable educators to build and sustain a school culture that accommodates the learning expectations and needs of all students The correlates of effective schools represent the knowledge educators need to successfully teach all children Taken together the correlates are more than just theory they are what effective schools do Introduction to the Principalship Leslie S. Kaplan, William A. Owings, 2015-03-12 The latest leadership textbook from respected author team Kaplan and Owings explores how principals can effectively build a culture around student achievement Introduction to the Principalship helps aspiring principals understand how to develop a vision for improvement make decisions and manage conflict build teachers capacity communicate monitor the organization s performance and create a school climate of mutual respect This important book provides readers with various leadership concepts to inform their practice as well as the cognitive and practical tools to evaluate and prioritize what leadership actions to take Each chapter offers opportunities for readers to create personal meaning and explore new ways of doing leadership to advance a positive person focused environment Providing both the theoretical framework and skills for effective practice Introduction to the Principalship addresses the issues most urgent and relevant for educational leadership graduate students learning how to build a school culture that promotes every student s success Special Features Learning Objectives chapter openers introduce the topic and initiate student thinking Reflections and Relevance interactive exercises role plays class activities and assignments help readers think about content in personally meaningful ways facilitate understanding of chapter content and help transfer leadership thinking to action in their own schools ISLLC Standards each chapter is aligned to the 2015 Interstate School Leadership Licensure Standards Companion Website includes links to supplemental material additional readings and PowerPoints for instructors Foundations of Education Leslie S. Kaplan, William A. Owings, 2022-01-21 Foundations of Education makes core topics in education accessible and personally meaningful to students pursuing a career within the education profession The Third Edition offers readers the breadth of coverage scholarly depth and conceptual analysis of contemporary issues that will help them gain a realistic and insightful perspective of the field A Scent of Water Edward Earwood, Phil Suiter, 2012-09-21 A Scent of Water is a message of hope for the Christian school movement a movement that is currently lacks vision struggles with enrollment declines and battles budget limitations This message derives from scriptural truth and the findings of empirical research and recommends a means for restoring a vision for the ministry The local Christian school must become the site for transforming the movement into one that focuses upon student learning and a clear delineation of student goals The authors examine schools as social and cultural systems that must be understood A Scent of Water describes the type of leadership that must characterize the movement and proposes an active vibrant and collaborative role for classroom teachers working with building principals who see themselves as capacity builders building strength and knowledge within the teaching staff to bring a scent of water that will revitalize and transform the movement
