Alone in the World? Van Huyssteen,2006-04-12 In Alone in the World first given as the 2004 Gifford Lectures at the University of Edinburgh J Wentzel van Huyssteen develops the interdisciplinary dialogue that he set out in The Shaping of Rationality 1999 applying this methodology to the uncharted waters between theological anthropology and paleoanthropology Among other things van Huyssteen argues that scientific notions of human uniqueness help us to ground theological notions of human distinctiveness in flesh and blood embodied experiences and protect us from overly complex theological abstractions regarding the image of God Focusing on the interdisciplinary problem of human origins and distinctiveness van Huyssteen accesses the origins of the embodied human mind through the spectacular prehistoric cave paintings of western Europe fifteen of which are reproduced in color in this volume Boldly connecting the widely separated fields of Christian theology and paleoanthropology through careful interdisciplinary reflection Alone in the World will encourage sustained investigation into the question of human uniqueness

Our World-God's Visible Language Jerry Salloum,2022-05-18 How could you ever have thought our world was the ultimate reality How could you ever have thought that it was merely a stage set for the moral drama of men and women For the many who share these thoughts from C S Lewis our world is far more than mere matter space and energy Its orderly patterns its reliable processes and arresting natural beauty give it the capacity to speak without words a mysterious language that feeds our curiosity and wonder about it We are drawn into the world of the audacious with thoughts beyond the conventional to posit an intelligent and imaginative Artist and Architect whose ineffable Creation in both its spatial and temporal dimensions defies adequate verbal expression In delving into revelation contained in various earth sciences and within the pages of the Bible Our World God s Visible Language reveals a congruency between these two avenues to Truth that the visible Creation repeatedly declares the glory and mystery of the invisible God and that science is not an enemy to faith Informative and written with imagination and personal anecdotes these pages provide readers an opportunity to better understand the invisible God and His written Word nudging us toward a loftier context in which life can be lived and enjoyed with hope and purpose

Why Did Jesus Die and What Does That Have to Do with Me? Fred R.

Anderson, 2022-12-28 This book looks at atonement biblically, theologically, historically, and sacramentally. Biblically, it is tied to Scripture's narrative of humanity's failure to fulfill God's intention and God's subsequent covenant with Abraham fulfilled in Jesus. Theologically, in Jesus, the eternal Logos became incarnate to fulfill God's intention to deal with sin and begin again with a new creation. Jesus' death was not a payment for anything to anyone. It was the Triune God's non-violent way of absorbing, defeating, and overcoming sin and death for the world. Two chapters focus on sacrifice: how it functioned in Israel's life with God, how Paul and Hebrews use it, and how it thereafter took on pagan connotations. Historically, three chapters review the development of atonement theories through Gustav Aul's Christus Victor. After reviewing atonement theologies of the last seventy-five years, especially feminist critiques of them, this retrieves Irenaeus and Athanasius, offering an understanding of atonement influenced by Baillie, Barth, Moltmann, Torrance, Von Balthasar, Tanner, and Weaver. Sacramentally, it describes how atonement is realized through the word, baptism, Eucharist, and prayer. Sacramental atonement nurtures those in Christ as members of God's new creation through Jesus' continuing high priestly ministry of atonement until his final return.
