Things Are Meaning Less Burn Collector:

Things Are Meaning Less Al Burian, 2003 This brilliant new book by Al Burian is a collection of comics drawings and handwritten text that together create a poignant and cohesive narrative Covering Al's days in Portland moving to Providence and a walking tour of his hometown this book is replete with Al's musings over life's little intricacies and meaning as well as the mental processes of growing up

Burn Collector Al Burian, 2010-11-15 Burn Collector compiles the first nine issues of Al Burian's sporadically published and widely acclaimed personal zine Beginning in the mid nineties Burian distributed his work through the tight knit network of the DIY punk music scene Burn Collector caught on because of its unusual content in a scene rife with dogmatic political diatribes and bland record reviews Burian presented his readers with humorous anecdotes philosophical musings and nuanced descriptions of odd locales and curious characters taken mostly from outside of the punk milieu and also because of the author's narrative voice which reflected the literary influences of Celine Henry Miller or even David Sedaris more than the influence of his contemporaries in the zine world The writing in Burn Collector blueprinted a post punk persona that was smart strange political but not correct attached to subculture but striving also for a connection to the world at large and to the greater themes of human existence The book went through six printings along the way garnering acclaim from readers inspiring a film Matt McCormick's 2009 Some Days are Better than Others and a major label album Thrice's 2003 The Artist in the Ambulance More importantly the book inspired readers to write and self publish to do it themselves in the true punk spirit

No Apocalypse Al Burian, 2019-05-10 War seems to have frazzled the punks That's an unusual turn of events considering punk is the subculture that gave us the phrases let's have a war let's start a war war on 45 my war wargasm war all the time and so on Rock n roll is war said the band Frodus but you know it really isn't Rock n roll is just rock n roll assessed AC/DC somewhat more accurately and while not necessarily noise pollution it is in the estimation of the Archers of Loaf too bad that the music doesn't matter Rock remains rock war remains war and despite everything being subjective and meaning something else entirely from what it appears to under the tenets of post modernity and end of historicism the fact remains that having a lot of dead people is a terrible terrible thing and having a lot of people voluntarily self inducing hearing loss is a less terrible thing Yes We are all in agreement here Al Burian is the author of the zine Burn Collector From 2000 to 2007 he was a columnist for various music magazines and DIY publications including Punk Planet HeartattaCk and the Skeleton NO APOCALYPSE presents the best of these writings collected in book form for the first time

Burn Collector Al Burian, 2010 A compilation of the first nine issues of the author's sporadically published and widely acclaimed personal zine this volume reflects the do it yourself attitude of the 1990s punk music scene and includes humorous anecdotes philosophical musings and nuanced descriptions of odd locales and curious characters all of which were taken mostly from outside of the punk milieu This new release of a cult classic shows the far reaching influence of self publishing with contemporary popular indie culture and bridges the gap between sub culture and the world at large

Maximum Rocknroll ,2004 Burn Collector #15 Al Burian,2011-05-01 The expatriated Al Burian reflects on a year spent living in Berlin Germany His wildly free range topics include freedom happiness animal liberty Aristotle modern dentistry riots as rituals uncomfortable proximity to drunken teenagers and how to best color co ordinate an outfit that includes a Black Flag T shirt and a baby stroller Plus when you realize the freedom an illustrated essay by Anne Elizabeth Moore This zine is the best one yet says Al Who are we to argue Landscape with Skiproads/Book Burning Pieter DeBuysser,2014-08-01 Landscape with Skiproads On stage a collection of objects that have played a unique role in our history Without exception these are the objects that were present at key moments in history They were there when we became who we are today When once more a stretch of our path was laid down for us they were present in silence With these Pieter De Buysser a boy and his horse are on a search for a lost future A joyful and epic journey is taking off Book Burning History is clogged There are no more revolutions What else can we add In Book Burning Pieter De Buysser tells the story of Sebastian a man he met at an Occupy demonstration whose life has become embroiled in a WikiLeaks scandal He follows the man s search to discover the root of a genetic illness that took the life of his wife and now threatens his daughter Tilda She just wants to forget it all This is a play about forgetting and forgiving knowledge and riddles secrets and the lack of stories It is a captivating fable told by a charming storyteller in the guise of Schr dinger s cat about personal histories globalisation and the beginnings of a new world Book Burning testifies to the possibilities of language and the magical power of a radical imagination The Literature of Waste S. Morrison,2015-06-03 Tracing material and metaphoric waste through the Western canon ranging from Beowulf to Samuel Beckett Susan Signe Morrison disrupts traditional perceptions of waste to better understand how we theorize manage and are implicated in what is discarded and seen as garbage Engaging a wide range of disciplines Morrison addresses how the materiality of waste has been sedimented into a variety of toxic metaphors If scholars can read waste as possessing dynamic agency how might that change the ethics of refuse ing and ostracizing wasted humans A major contribution to the growing field of Waste Studies this comparative and theoretically innovative book confronts the reader with the ethical urgency present in waste literature itself Alleviative Objects David Frohnapfel,2020-12-07 The global field of contemporary art is shaped by inter racial conflicts Alleviative Objects approaches Caribbean art through intersectional entanglements and combines decolonial epistemologies with critical whiteness studies and affect theory in order to rethink Euro and U S centric perspectives on art race and class David Frohnapfel shows how progressive racism in the discourse on Haitian art recenters Whiteness by performing benign innocent and heroic identifications with the artist group Atis Rezistans While the study turns critically towards Whiteness it also turns away from it and towards the compelling contributions of Haitian curators and artists to the decentralization of contemporary art
