Babylonian Talmud Beth A. Berkowitz, 2018-04-19 Animals and Animality in the Babylonian Talmud selects key themes in animal studies animal intelligence morality sexuality suffering danger personhood and explores their development in the Babylonian Talmud Beth A Berkowitz demonstrates that distinctive features of the Talmud the new literary genre the convergence of Jewish Christian and Zoroastrian cultures the Talmud's remove from Temple centered biblical Israel led to unprecedented possibilities within Jewish culture for conceptualizing animals and animality She explores their development in the Babylonian Talmud showing how it is ripe for reading with a critical animal studies perspective When we do we find waiting for us a multi layered surprisingly self aware discourse about animals as well as about the anthropocentrism that infuses human relationships with them For readers of religion Judaism and animal studies her book offers new perspectives on animals from the vantage point of the ancient rabbis Animals and Early Modern Identity Pia F. Cuneo, 2017-07-05 Animals were everywhere in the early modern period and they impacted at least in some way the lives of every kind of early modern person from the humblest peasant to the greatest prince Artists made careers based on depicting them English gentry impoverished themselves spending money on them Humanists exercised their scholarship writing about them Pastors saved souls delivering sermons on them Nobles forged alliances competing with them Foreigners and indigenes negotiated with one another through trading them The nexus between animal human relationships and early modern identity is illuminated in this volume by the latest research of international scholars working on the history of art literature and of sixteenth and seventeenth century Germany France England Spain and South Africa Collectively these essays investigate how animals horses dogs pigs hogs fish cattle sheep birds rhinoceroses even sea monsters and other creatures served people in Europe England the Americas and Africa to defend contest or transcend the boundaries of early modern identities Developments in the methodologies employed by scholars to interrogate the past have opened up an intellectual and discursive space for and a concomitant recognition of the study of animals as a topic that significantly elucidates past and present histories Relevant to a considerable array of disciplines the study of animals also provides a means to surmount traditional disciplinary boundaries through processes of dynamic interchange and cross fertilization Literary Theory: The Basics Hans Bertens, 2017-07-14 This third edition of Hans Bertens bestselling book is an essential guide to the often confusing and complicated world of literary theory Exploring a broad range of topics from Marxist and feminist criticism to postmodernism and new historicism Literary Theory The Basics covers contemporary topics including reception theory and reader response theory the new criticism of postmodernism the after theory debate post humanism biopolitics and animal studies aesthetics Literary Theory The Basics helps readers to approach the many theories and debates in this field with confidence Now with updated case studies and further reading this is an essential purchase for anyone who strives to understand literary theory today Animal Poetics and Literary Thinking Ratul Nandi, 2024-11-25 Animal Poetics and Literary Thinking explores and reorients our approach to animal thinking through the intersection between literary fiction continental philosophy and theory This book situates animals and animality as neither a corporeal entity nor a conceptual essence but as a scintillating impossibility that concurrently encourages and overturns our grasping impulse to know animals from their perspectives This framework corresponds with the milieu of literature as poesis which is uniquely connected to a refusal to know By exploring the writings of J M Coetzee Franz Kafka Mary Shelly and Kazuo Ishiguro this volume encounters a template of animal thinking that seeks to uncover the singularity of animals through a sustained exploration of what remains radically unknowable about animality the vestiges of which have their presence in the world of literary fiction

The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Approaches to the Hebrew Bible Susanne Scholz, 2020-10-01 The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Approaches to the Hebrew Bible brings together 37 essential essays written by leading international scholars examining crucial points of analysis within the field of feminist Hebrew Bible studies Organized into four major areas globalization neoliberalism media and intersectionality the essays collectively provide vibrant relevant and innovative contributions to the field The topics of analysis focus heavily on gender and queer identity with essays touching on African Korean and European feminist hermeneutics womanist and interreligious readings ecofeminist and animal biblical studies migration biblical studies the role of gender binary voices in evangelical egalitarian approaches and the examination of scripture in light of trans women s voices The volume also includes essays examining the Old Testament as recited in music literature film and video games The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Approaches to the Hebrew Bible charts a culturally hermeneutically and exegetically cutting edge path for the ongoing development of biblical studies grounded in feminist womanist gender and queer perspectives

Multiple Knowledges. Learning from/with Other Beings Joanna Godlewicz-Adamiec, Paweł Piszczatowski, Justyna Włodarczyk, Piotr Kociumbas, 2022-04-11 This issue of Transpositiones showcases a range of interdisciplinary and critical approaches to classic and alternative conceptions of cognition and sources of knowledge The articles reflect on the many types of sensory and extrasensory knowledge available to non human beings and wonder whether and in what ways can we as humans perceive conceptualize and respect these knowledges The authors highlight how the existence of multiple knowledges questions species boundaries and onto and epistemological perspectives in the process of learning not only about other beings but also from and along with them This selection of texts attempts to contribute to overcoming the anthropocentric perception of subjectivity and to the abandoning of an optics based on the dualisms of nature and culture spirit and matter subject and object animate and inanimate nature physis and techne etc which are so firmly entrenched in the Western intellectual tradition

Animal Subjects Caroline Hovanec, 2018-09-06 Animal Subjects finds a new understanding of animal life in the literature and science of the early twentieth century

Writing Animals Timothy C. Baker, 2019-01-07 This book surveys a broad range of contemporary texts to show how representations of human animal relations challenge the anthropocentric nature of fiction By looking at the relation between language and suffering in twenty first century fiction and drawing on a wide range of theoretical approaches Baker suggests new opportunities for exploring the centrality of nonhuman animals in recent fiction writing animal lives leads to new narrative structures and forms of expression These novels destabilise assumptions about the nature of pain and vulnerability the burden of literary inheritance the challenge of writing the Anthropocene and the relation between text and image Including both well known authors and emerging talents from J M Coetzee and Karen Joy Fowler to Sarah Hall Alexis Wright and Max Porter and texts from experimental fiction to work for children Writing Animals offers an original perspective on both contemporary fiction and the field of literary animal studies
