Threads And Traces True False Fictive:

Threads and Traces Carlo Ginzburg, 2012-09-02 This book is a translation of historian Carlo Ginzburg's latest collection of essays Through the detective work of uncovering a wide variety of stories or microhistories from fragments Ginzburg takes on the bigger questions How do we draw the line between truth and fiction What is the relationship between history and memory Stories range from medieval Europe the inquisitional trial of a witch seventeenth century antiquarianism and twentieth century historians Provided by publisher

A Historical Approach to Casuistry Carlo Ginzburg, Lucio Biasiori, 2018-12-27 Casuistry the practice of resolving moral problems by applying a logical framework has had a much larger historical presence before and since it was given a name in the Renaissance The contributors to this volume examine a series of case studies to explain how different cultures and religions past and present have wrestled with morality's exceptions and margins and the norms with which they break For example to what extent have the Islamic and Judaic traditions allowed smoking tobacco or gambling How did the Spanish colonization of America generate formal justifications for what it claimed Where were the lines of transgression around food money lending and sex in Ancient Greece and Rome How have different systems dealt with suicide Casuistry lives at the heart of such questions in the tension between norms and exceptions between what seems forbidden but is not A Historical Approach to Casuistry does not only examine this tension but re frames casuistry as a global phenomenon that has informed ethical and religious traditions for millennia and that continues to influence our lives today

Deciphering Carlo Ginzburg Deivy F. Carneiro, Daniel R. B. Dias, 2024-10-30 This book offers an original reading of Carlo Ginzburg's work tracing his trajectory in the context of Italian micro history his debates on the objectivity of historical knowledge and the connection of his work to the expanded perspectives constructed in recent decades by global history Ginzburg's theories have achieved notoriety not only in the field of history but also among the wider public This volume uses Ginzburg's own aesthetic and intellectual practices in its analysis and it deciphers the elements that drove and influenced the making of his work By highlighting the procedures that Ginzburg has constructed to respond to problems of cultural history the book also pays close attention to Erich Auerbach and Aby Warburg whose influences played a crucial role in reformulating Ginzburg's conception of micro history From there the volume demonstrates the radicality of Ginzburg's micro history through the discussion of some of his most recent contributions to international historiographical debates Thought provoking and thoroughly researched Deciphering Carlo Ginzburg is an innovative study in Ginzburg's methods and theories

New Art of Cookery Vicky Hayward, 2017-06-16 Winner of the Jane Grigson Trust Award 2017 and the Aragonese Academy of Gastronomy's 2017 Prize for Research New Art of Cookery Drawn from the School of Economic Experience was an influential recipe book published in 1745 by Spanish friary cook Juan Altamiras In it he wrote up over 200 recipes for meat poultry game salted and fresh fish vegetables and sweet things in a chatty style aimed at readers who cooked on a modest budget He showed that economic cookery could be delicious if flavors and aromas were blended with an appreciation for all sorts of ingredients however humble and for diverse food cultures ranging from that of Aragon his home region to those of Iberian court and New World kitchens This first English translation gives guidelines for today s cooks alongside the original text and interweaves a new narrative portraying 18th century Spain its everyday life and food culture The author traces links between New Art s dishes and modern Spanish cookery tells the story of her search to identify the book s author and understand the popularity of his book for over 150 years and takes travelers cooks historians and students of Spanish language culture and gastronomy on a fascinating journey to the world of Altamiras and most important of all his kitchen

The Art of Discovery Maren Elisabeth Schwab,Anthony Grafton,2025-01-28 A panoramic history of the antiquarians whose discoveries transformed Renaissance culture and gave rise to new forms of art and knowledge In the early fifteenth century a casket containing the remains of the Roman historian Livy was unearthed at a Benedictine abbey in Padua The find was greeted with the same enthusiasm as the bones of a Christian saint and established a pattern that antiquarians would follow for centuries to come The Art of Discovery tells the stories of the Renaissance antiquarians who turned material remains of the ancient world into sources for scholars and artists inspirations for palaces and churches and objects of pilgrimage and devotion Maren Elisabeth Schwab and Anthony Grafton bring to life some of the most spectacular finds of the age such as Nero s Golden House and the wooden placard that was supposedly nailed to the True Cross They take readers into basements caves and cisterns explaining how digs were undertaken and shedding light on the methods antiquarians and the alchemists and craftspeople they consulted used to interpret them What emerges is not an origin story for modern archaeology or art history but rather an account of how early modern artisanal skills and technical expertise were used to create new knowledge about the past and inspire new forms of art scholarship and devotion in the present The Art of Discovery challenges the notion that Renaissance antiquarianism was strictly a secular enterprise revealing how the rediscovery of Christian relics and the bones of martyrs helped give rise to highly interdisciplinary ways of examining and authenticating objects of all kinds

Speculative Biography Donna Lee Brien,Kiera Lindsey,2021-09-30 While speculation has always been crucial to biography it has often been neglected denied or misunderstood This edited collection brings together a group of international biographers to discuss how and why each uses speculation in their work whether this is to conceptualise a project in its early stages work with scanty or deliberately deceptive sources or address issues associated with shy or stubborn subjects After defining the role of speculation in biography the volume offers a series of work in progress case studies that discuss the challenges biographers encounter and address in their work In addition to defining the speculative spectrum within the biographical endeavour the collection offers a lexicon of new terms to describe different types of biographical speculation and more deeply engage with the dynamic interplay between research subjectivity and that which Natalie Zemon Davis dubbed informed imagination By mapping the field of speculative biography the collection demonstrates that speculation is not only innate to biographical practice but also key to rendering the complex mystery of biographical subjects be they human animal or even metaphysical Archaeology and the Letters of Paul Laura Salah Nasrallah,2019 This study illuminates the social political economic and religious lives of those to whom the apostle Paul wrote It articulates a method for bringing together biblical texts with archaeological remains Fabricating Founders in Early Modern England Lauren Horn Griffin,2023-09-14 This book argues that in order to understand nationalisms we need a clearer understanding of the types of cultural myths symbols and traditions that legitimate them Myths of origin and election memories of a greater and purer past and narratives of persecution and mission are required for the production and maintenance of powerful national sentiments Through an investigation of how early modern Catholics and Protestants reimagined reinterpreted and rewrote the lives of the founder saints who spread Christianity in England this book offers a theoretical framework for the study of origin narratives Analyzing the discursive construction of time and place the invocation of forces beyond the human to naturalize and authorize and the role of visual and ritual culture in fabrications of the past this book provides a case study for how to approach claims about founding figures Serving as a timely example of the dependence of national identity on key religious resources Griffin shows how origin narratives particularly the founding figures that anchor them function as uniquely powerful rhetorical tools for the cultural production of regional and national identity Authorial Personality and the Making of Renaissance Texts Douglas S. Pfeiffer,2022 Studying texts by Lorenzo Valla Erasmus Saint Jerome George Gascoigne and Fulke Greville this volume explores authorial character as an instrument of textual analysis in the scholarship of early Renaissance literature Literature and Historiography in the Spanish Golden Age Sofie Kluge,2021-09-30 Golden Age departures in historiography and theory of history in some ways prepared the ground for modern historical methods and ideas about historical factuality At the same time they fed into the period s own aesthetic historical culture which amalgamated fact and fiction in ways modern historians would consider counterfactual a culture where imaginative historical prose poetry and drama self consciously rivalled the accounts of royal chroniclers and the dispatches of diplomatic envoys a culture dominated by a notion of truth in which skilful construction of the argument and exemplarity took precedence over factual accuracy Literature and Historiography in the Spanish Golden Age The Poetics of History investigates this grey area backdrop of modern ideas about history delving into a variety of Golden Age aesthetic historical works which cannot be satisfactorily described as either works of literature or works of historiography but which belong in between these later strictly separate categories The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
