Three American Poets Penguin Classics:

Three American Poets Herman Melville, Frederick Goddard Tuckerman, Edwin Arlington Robinson, 2003 A unique collection of poems from three writers living under the shadow of the Civil War Three great American poets all of whom preferred the solitary life and yet each responded in very different ways to the greatest social event of their times the challenge of living in a country recovering from civil war The selection from Melville aims to show the range of his shorter verse from the public poet intensely concerned with the Civil War and its meaning for humanity to the private poet as he withdrew from the eyes of the world Robinson's quintessential and much anthologised famous poems can be read set alongside the less widely read pieces also included here Tuckerman is a neglected poet whose poems reflect his friendship with Tennyson and his grief for the loss of his wife
