Without Hesitation Judith T. Walenta NP, 2019-10-11 Judith T Walenta had just begun her new career as a nurse practitioner in Manhattan when she is diagnosed with stage one breast cancer Having avoided conventional medicine for years in her own care she suddenly finds herself diagnosed with a serious potentially fatal disease At first her unwavering faith in holistic healing seems to abandon her and she resigns herself to accepting traditional treatment But when her search begins to uncover alternatives she rejects surgery and chemo and chooses therapies that heal her mind and spirit as well as her body In the end she not only wins her battle against breast cancer but is also shown that it s possible to live a richer fuller more joyous life even after receiving a life altering diagnosis In this memoir set in 1990 and 1991 the author shares both her very personal journey as she seeks to eradicate the cancer threatening to kill her and a historical perspective on the growth and development of what is commonly called alternative medicine today Join the author on her journey of spiritual emotional and physical healing after the biopsy that changed her life forever

Touch in the Helping Professions Martin Rovers, Judith Malette, Manal Guirguis-Younger, 2018-04-10 Inappropriate touch cases have sparked public outcry and made headlines but a discussion on the importance and ethics of positive caring appropriate touch in the helping professions such as teaching nursing and counselling is long overdue Touch may well be one of the least understood or talked about subjects in the helping professions A discussion on the importance and ethics of positive caring and appropriate touch in professions such as teaching nursing and counselling is long overdue Touch in the Helping Professions delivers just that weaving together scholarly evidence research and clinical practice from a wide range of perspectives encompassing philosophy theology psychology and anthropology to challenge assumptions about the role of touch in the helping professions The contributors to the volume focus not only on the overarching roles of gender age culture and life experience but go beyond to encompass canine assisted therapy touch deprivation sacred objects as well as key ethical considerations The prevailing lack of dialogue due to fear of contravening ethical boundaries has stood in the way of an open and responsible discussion on the use of touch in therapy Touch in the Helping Professions is a welcome and much needed contribution to the field a window onto a fundamental need Published in English
