Romantic Echoes in the Victorian Era Andrew Radford,2017-03-02 In tracing those deliberate and accidental Romantic echoes that reverberate through the Victorian age into the beginning of the twentieth century this collection acknowledges that the Victorians decided for themselves how to define what is Romantic The essays explore the extent to which Victorianism can be distinguished from its Romantic precursors or whether it is possible to conceive of Romanticism without the influence of these Victorian definitions Romantic Echoes in the Victorian Era reassesses Romantic literature s immediate cultural and literary legacy in the late nineteenth century showing how the Victorian writings of Matthew Arnold Wilkie Collins the Bront s the Brownings Elizabeth Gaskell Charles Dickens Gerard Manley Hopkins Thomas Hardy and the Rossettis were instrumental in shaping Romanticism as a cultural phenomenon Many of these Victorian writers found in the biographical literary and historical models of Chatterton Coleridge Byron Shelley Keats and Wordsworth touchstones for reappraising their own creative potential and artistic identity Whether the Victorians affirmed or revolted against the Romanticism of their early years their attitudes towards Romantic values enriched and intensified the personal creative and social dilemmas described in their art Taken together the essays in this collection reflect on current critical dialogues about literary periodisation and contribute to our understanding of how these contemporary debates stem from Romanticism s inception in the Victorian age

John Donne in the Nineteenth Century Dayton Haskin,2007-06-21 John Donne was famous in his own time yet was virtually unknown in the eighteenth century Haskin investigates what happened as Victorian readers prompted by the enormous popularity of Izaak Walton s biography began to gradually rediscover the poetry before showing how Donne came to be seen as the discovery of T S Eliot and the modernists

Romantic Autobiography in England Eugene Stelzig,2016-04-08 Taking into account the popularity and variety of the genre this collaborative volume considers a wide range of English Romantic autobiographical writers and modes including working class autobiography the familiar essay and the staged presence In the wake of Rousseau's Confessions autobiography became an increasingly popular as well as a literary mode of writing By the early nineteenth century this hybrid and metamorphic genre is found everywhere in English letters in prose and poetry by men and women of all classes As such it resists attempts to provide a coherent historical account or establish a neat theoretical paradigm The contributors to Romantic Autobiography in England embrace the challenge focusing not only on major writers such as William Wordsworth De Quincey and Mary Shelley but on more recent additions to the canon such as Mary Robinson Dorothy Wordsworth and Mary Hays There are also essays on the scandalous Memoirs of Mrs Billington and on Joseph Severn's autobiographical scripting of himself as the friend of Keats The result is an exploratory and provisional mapping of the field provocative rather than exhaustive intended to inspire future scholarship and teaching

Tears, Liquids and Porous Bodies in Literature Across the Ages Norbert Lennartz, 2021-08-26 Taking in works from writers as diverse as William Shakespeare William Wordsworth Charlotte Brontë John Keats James Joyce and D H Lawrence this book spans approximately 300 years and unpacks how bodily liquidity porosity and petrification recur as a pattern and underlie the chequered history of the body and genders in literature Lennartz examines the precarious relationship between porosity and its opposite closure containment and stoniness and explores literary history as a meandering narrative in which female porosity and manly stoniness clash showing how different societies and epochs respond to and engage with bodily porosity This book considers the ways that this relationship is constantly renegotiated and where effusive and feminine genres such as sloppy letters and streams of consciousness are pitted against stony and astringent forms of masculinity like epitaphs sonnets and the Bildungsroman

Soft-Shed Kisses Małgorzata Łuczyńska-Holdys, 2013-07-26 The femme fatale appears with unceasing regularity in the texts of major poets of the nineteenth century She symbolises an intractable mystery a refusal to be defined and a fierce attempt to exist outside the established gender system Soft Shed Kisses Re-visioning the Femme Fatale in English Poetry of the 19th Century interrogates the construction and use of the fatal woman motif in the poetry of canonical male writers of the times both Romantic and Victorian Subsequent chapters investigate a variety of poems by John Keats Percy Bysshe Shelley Alfred Tennyson Dante Gabriel Rossetti and Charles Algernon Swinburne in which the femme fatale surfaces as the most important character Close readings of poetry are enriched by an examination of the same motif in visual art set against the vivid cultural background of the Victorian era

Pre-Raphaelite Masculinities Serena Trowbridge, 2017-07-05 Drawing on recent theoretical developments in gender and men's studies Pre-Raphaelite Masculinities shows how the ideas and models of masculinity were constructed in the work of artists and writers associated with the Pre-Raphaelite movement Paying particular attention to the representation of non-normative or alternative masculinities the contributors take up the multiple versions of masculinity in Dante Gabriel Rossetti's paintings and poetry masculine violence in William Morris's late romances nineteenth century masculinity and the medical narrative in Ford Madox Brown's Cromwell on His Farm accusations of perversion directed at Edward Burne Jones's work performative masculinity and William Bell Scott's frescoes the representations of masculinity in Pre-Raphaelite illustration aspects of male chastity in poetry and art Tannhäuser as a model for Victorian manhood and masculinity and British imperialism in Holman Hunt's The Light of the World Taken together these essays demonstrate the far-reaching effects of the plurality of masculinities that pervade the art and literature of the Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood

The Rise and Fall of the Femme Fatale in British Literature, 1790-1910 Heather L. Braun, 2012-08-31 The Rise and Fall of the Femme Fatale in British Literature 1790-1910 explores the femme fatale's career in nineteenth-century British literature. It traces her evolution and devolution formally, historically, and ideologically through a selection of plays, poems, novels, and personal correspondence. Considering well-known fatal women alongside more obscure ones, The Rise and Fall of the Femme Fatale sheds new light on emerging notions of gender, sexuality, and power throughout the long nineteenth century. By placing the fatal woman in a still-developing literary and cultural narrative, this study examines how the femme fatale adapts over time, reflecting popular tastes and socio-economic landscapes.
