CHECKPOINT ONE-FOUR: A Vietnam Veteran's Chronicle of Survivor Guilt, Posttraumatic Stress Disorder and Mending the Invisible Wound J. M. McGarrity, 2006 Navy Medicine in Vietnam Jan K. Herman, 2009-01-14 The book chronicles the Navy Medical Department's participation in Vietnam beginning with the Navy's rescue of the French survivors of the Battle of Dien Bien Phu in 1954 and ending with the Navy's rescue of Vietnamese refugees fleeing the fall of South Vietnam in 1975. When American involvement reached its peak in 1968, the 750-bed Naval Support Activity Hospital Danang (NSAH) was in full operation and two hospital ships, the USS Repose and the USS Sanctuary, cruised offshore. Whether the situation called for saving the lives of injured sailors aboard a burning aircraft carrier or treating a critically wounded Marine for shock in the rubble-strewn streets of Hue, Navy medical personnel were in Vietnam from the beginning of American involvement to the very end, saving thousands of lives. This book tells the story of the Navy Medical Department's involvement through stark and gripping first-person accounts by patients and the Navy physicians, dentists, nurses, and hospital corpsmen who treated them. More than 50 historic photos document their work.

Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents, 1967 The Tricky Part Martin Moran, 2005 Martin Moran's family lived in a Denver neighborhood called Virginia Vale. But what seemed most central, most important, was that they belonged to Christ the King, the church and school up the hill. And what Martin learned as a good Catholic boy was that the Hereafter was what counted; the here, fickle and unreliable, was the problem. Martin's world changed abruptly when, at the age of twelve, a church camp counselor seduced him. New York Times theater critic Ben Brantley, praising Moran's one-act play The Tricky Part for the quiet victory of rendering chaos with this kind of clarity, called his telling of this event a crystalline accumulation of moments. In his memoir, Moran takes us deeper into the ongoing sexual relationship that followed the seduction and, for the first time, he explores its effects upon his adult life. And finally, in a scene of stunning power and restraint, Moran confronts the perpetrator, now an old man in a veteran's hospital. In examining the paradoxes of human relationships, Moran manages to uncover divine grace in the most unlikely forms.

Buster's Book Donald Junkins, 2012-11 Providing insight in a family's history against the backdrop of major world wars, Buster's Book offers a collection of more than a thousand letters exchanged during the twentieth century as young men provided service to their country. In this memoir, author Donald Junkins has compiled letters, diaries, interviews, recollections, and photographs of the family's participants in both world wars and the Korean and Vietnam wars. This fascinating historical record includes the stories of a variety of escapades: from single-handedly opening an eight-year-old Nazi prison cell and to the rescue in Korea of wounded men stalled in a jeep in the middle of a freezing river, that culminated in the awarding of the Silver Star. Buster's Book reflects both the lives of a middle-class American family during these years and the daily activities of two generations of young American men at war. Against the
