What Light Can Do Essays On Art Imagination And The Natural World:

What Light Can Do Robert Hass, 2012-08-14 Universally lauded poet Robert Hass offers a stunning wide ranging collection of essays on art imagination and the natural world with accompanying photos throughout What Light Can Do is a magnificent companion piece to the former U S Poet Laureate s Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award winning poetry collection Time and Materials as well as his earlier book of essays the NBCC Award winner Twentieth Century Pleasures Haas brilliantly discourses on many of his favorite topics on writers ranging from Jack London to Wallace Stevens to Allen Ginsberg to Cormac McCarthy on California and on the art of photography in several memorable pieces in What Light Can Do a remarkable literary treasure that might best be described as luminous Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De Roche, 2021-06-04 This four volume reference work surveys American literature from the early 20th century to the present day featuring a diverse range of American works and authors and an expansive selection of primary source materials Bringing useful and engaging material into the classroom this four volume set covers more than a century of American literary history from 1900 to the present Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context profiles authors and their works and provides overviews of literary movements and genres through which readers will understand the historical cultural and political contexts that have shaped American writing Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context provides wide coverage of authors works genres and movements that are emblematic of the diversity of modern America Not only are major literary movements represented such as the Beats but this work also highlights the emergence and development of modern Native American literature African American literature and other representative groups that showcase the diversity of American letters A rich selection of primary documents and background material provides indispensable information for student research The Nature Essay Simone Schröder, 2019-01-04 The Nature Essay Ecocritical Explorations is the first extended study of a powerful literary form born out of the traditions of Enlightenment and Romanticism It traces the varied stylistic paradigms of the nature essay down to the present day Reading essays as platforms for ecological discourse the book analyses canonical and marginalised texts mainly from German English and American literature Simone Schröder argues that the essay s environmental impact is rooted in its negotiation of scientific poetic spiritual and ethical modes of perceiving nature Together the chapters on these four aspects form a historical panorama of the nature essay as a genre that continues to flourish in our time of ecological crisis Authors discussed include Alexander von Humboldt Henry David Thoreau Virginia Woolf Robert Musil Ernst Jünger W G Sebald Kathleen Jamie and David Foster Wallace Dialogue and Influence Piotr Florczyk, 2025-07-29 Dialogue and Influence wed a commitment to translation studies to historical and conceptual questions about translation literary influence and global literary networks by highlighting the fantastically generative dialogue that Polish and American poets have engaged in since the 1960s They have translated each other s work and learned how to write new kinds of poems in the process In some cases they have written poems addressed to each other The canons of Polish poetry in the US and of American poetry in Poland are necessarily missing some key figures but they are constantly being revised with new names and works added every year including writings by translingual Polish American poets who straddle both literary communities These essays celebrate the ongoing transfer while also setting up the stage for things to come The Poetic Species

Edward O. Wilson, Robert Hass, 2014-03-24 A meeting of great minds at the intersection of the arts and sciences Enchanting The Poetic Species is a wonderful read in its entirety short yet infinitely simulating Maria Popova Marginalian In this shimmering conversation Edward O Wilson renowned scientist and proponent of consilience or the unity of knowledge finds an ardent interlocutor in Robert Hass whose credo as United States poet laureate was imagination makes communities As they explore the many ways that poetry and science enhance each other they travel from anthills to ancient Egypt and to the heights and depths of human potential A testament to how science and the arts can join forces to educate and inspire this book is also a passionate plea for conservation of all the planet's species Memory, Edited Abby Smith Rumsey, 2023-08-22

An exploration of historical memory and networks of meaning in the context of today's crises of extremism and polarization As authoritarianism continues to rise around the world the stories we tell ourselves about what has happened and what is happening become ever more relevant In Memory Edited Abby Smith Rumsey examines collective memory how it binds us and how it can be used by bad actors to manipulate us Bringing forward the voices of a rich cast of Eastern European artists from the past two hundred years from Fyodor Dostoevsky to Gerhard Richter Rumsey shows how their work and lives illustrate the devastation wrought by regimes dependent on entrenched lies to survive This hijacking of the narrative polarizes communities even as it commandeers our future Through an interdisciplinary lens that includes the best thinking from history the arts cognitive science psychology and political philosophy Rumsey lays bare our narratives showing how they are constructed and how they have changed over time Ever aware of resisting the false promise of utopia Rumsey argues that only by confronting the past and reckoning with the crimes that were committed can we ever hope to heal and gain self knowledge Memory Edited is an indispensable text for anyone who cares about democracy equality and freedom in our current age of crisis The Arizona Quarterly, 2014 The World's Best Essays Francis Henry Pritchard, 1929
