Writing History A Professors Life:

Writing History Michael Bliss, 2011-09-20 One of Canada's best known and most honoured biographers turns to the raw material of his own life in Writing History. A university professor, prolific scholar, public intellectual and frank critic of the world he has known, Michael Bliss draws on extensive personal diaries to describe a life that has taken him from small town Ontario in the 1950s to international recognition for his books in Canadian and medical history. His memoir ranges remarkably widely: it encompasses social history, family tragedy, a critical insider's view of university life, Canadian national politics, and above all, a rare glimpse into the craftsmanship that goes into the research and writing of history in our time. Whether writing about pigs and millionaires, the discovery of insulin, sleazy Canadian politicians or the founders of modern medicine and brain surgery, Michael Bliss is noted for the clarity of his prose, the honesty of his opinions, and the breadth of his literary interests.

The Discovery of Insulin Michael Bliss, 2021-09-30 This special centenary edition of The Discovery of Insulin celebrates a path-breaking medical discovery that has changed lives around the world.

The life and correspondence of Thomas Arnold, Professor of modern history in the university of Oxford Arthur Penrhyn Stanley, 1844 The Living Age, 1869 Littell's Living Age, 1869 Dialogue on Writing Geraldine DeLuca, Len Fox, Mark Ameen Johnson, Myra Kogen, Geri DeLuca, 2013-06-17 Designed for courses on theories and methods of teaching college writing, this text is distinguished by its emphasis on giving teachers a foundation of knowledge for teaching writing to a diverse student body. As such, it is equally relevant for teacher training in basic writing, ESL, and first-year composition, the premise being that in most colleges and universities today, teachers of each of these types of courses encounter similar student populations and teaching challenges. Many instructors compile packets of articles for this course because they cannot find an appropriate collection in one volume. This text fills that gap. It includes in one volume the latest thinking about teaching and tutoring basic writing, ESL, and first-year composition; students' seminal articles carefully selected to be accessible to those new to the field; by classic authors in the field of composition and ESL, as well as a number of new voices; attention to both theory and practice, but with an emphasis on practice; and articles about non-traditional students, multiculturalism, and writing across the disciplines. The text includes suggestions for pedagogy and invitations for exploration to engage readers in reflection and in applications to their own teaching practice.

Littell's Living Age Eliakim Littell, Robert S. Littell, 1869 National Geographic Concise History of the World Neil Kagan, 2013 A chronology of world history ranges from the dawn of humankind to the present day, examining important events, milestones, ideas, and personalities that occurred simultaneously in different regions of the world.
