This Woman In Particular Contexts For The Biographical Image Of Emily Carr:

This Woman in Particular Stephanie Kirkwood Walker, 2010-01-27 What happens when an individual becomes the subject of many and divergent portraits Biography says Stephanie Kirkwood Walker is a deceptive genre Positioned between fact and fiction and elusive in its purposes biography displays an individual life an existence patterned by conventions that have also shaped the reader's experience In This Woman in Particular Walker explores versions of Emily Carr's life that have appeared over the last half century Walker contends that the biographical image of Emily Carr that emerges from an accumulation of biographies films plays and poetry as well as her own autobiographical writing establishes an elaborated cultural artefact an image that is bound by its very nature to remain forever incomplete and always elusive She demonstrates how changes in Carr's biographical image parallel the maturing of Canadian biographical writing reflecting attitudes toward women artists and the shifting balance between religion secular attitudes and contemporary spirituality And she concludes that biography plays a crucial role in all our lives in initiating and sustaining debate on vital personal and collective concerns

This Woman in Particular Stephanie Kirkwood Walker, 1996-05-23 Walker religion and culture Wilfrid Laurier U contends with the image of Emily Carr Canadian artist and writer while at the same time paralleling how the work of Canadian biographers reflects shifting attitudes toward women religion and spirituality Carr like Georgia O'Keefe and Frieda Kahlo is an elusive figure whose artistic quest by its innovative and individual nature set her apart from her time Walker introduces the key elements responsible for the resurgence of interest in Carr during the last 20 years opening questions on the very nature of feminist creation and its perception by society Canadian card order number C95 932582 4 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Antimodernism and Artistic Experience Lynda Lee Jessup, 2001-12-15 Antimodernism is a term used to describe the international reaction to the onslaught of the modern world that swept across industrialized Western Europe North America and Japan in the decades around the turn of the twentieth century Scholars in art history anthropology political science history and feminist media studies explore antimodernism as an artistic response to a perceived sense of loss in particular the loss of authentic experience Embracing the authentic as a redemptive antidote to the threat of unheralded economic and social change antimodernism sought out experience supposedly embodied in pre industrialized societies in medieval communities or oriental cultures in the Primitive the Traditional or Folk In describing the ways in which modern artists used antimodern constructs in formulating their work the contributors examine the involvement of artists and intellectuals in the reproduction and diffusion of these concepts In doing so they reveal the interrelation of fine art decorative art souvenir or tourist art and craft questioning the ways in which these categories of artistic expression reformulate and naturalise social relations in the field of cultural production

The Feminine Gaze Anne Innis Dagg, 2006-01-01 Many Canadian women fiction writers have become justifiably famous But what about women who have written non fiction When Anne Innis Dagg set out on a personal quest to make such non fiction authors better known she expected to find just a few dozen To her delight she unearthed 473 writers who have produced over 674 books These women describe not only their country and its inhabitants but a remarkable variety of other subjects from the story of transportation to the legacy of Canadian missionary activity around the world While most of the writers lived in what is now Canada other authors were British or American travellers who visited Canada throughout the years and reported on what they found here This compendium has brief biographies of all these women short descriptions of their books and a comprehensive index of their books subject matters The Feminine Gaze A Canadian Compendium of Non Fiction Women Authors and Their Books 1836 1945 will be an invaluable research tool for women s studies and for all who wish to supplement the male gaze on Canada s past Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly,2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms The Routledge Introduction to Auto/biography in Canada Sonja Boon,Laurie McNeill,Julie Rak,Candida Rifkind,2022-12-29 The Routledge Introduction to Auto biography in Canada explores the exciting world of nonfiction writing about the self designed to give teachers and students the tools they need to study both canonical and lesser known works The volume introduces important texts and contexts for interpreting life narratives demonstrates the conceptual tools necessary to understand what life narratives are and how they work and offers an historical overview of key moments in Canadian auto biography Not sure what life writing in Canada is or how to study it This critical introduction covers the tools and approaches you require in order to undertake your own interpretation of life writing texts You will encounter nonfictional writing about individual lives and experiences including biography autobiography letters diaries comics poetry plays and memoirs The volume includes case studies to provide examples of how to study and research life narratives and toolkits to help you apply what you learn The Routledge Introduction to Auto biography in Canada provides instructors and students with the contexts and the critical tools to discover the power of life writing and the skills to study any kind of nonfiction from Canada and around the world Beyond Belief Ronald R. Bernier,2010-06-01 Beyond Belief Theoaesthetics or Just Old Time Religion explores the possible reemergence of a theological dimension to contemporary art Long estranged from symbol and sacrament contemporary artists and those who think and write about them seem to have turned once again to a vision rooted in the sacred In an era marked culturally by world weary cynicism and self conscious irony a new humanism may be emerging one which aims to move beyond fragmentation and opposition to integration and unification The aim of this book is not to propose a resurgence of religious iconography but rather to give voice to long suppressed often maligned and certainly professionally risky positions informed by and reverberating with themes of the sacred The essays included here by a range of scholars working on these issues today originated as a lively and spirited session of the 2008 College Art Association annual conference
